QUINN ELECTED AMERICAN LEGION HEAD

Big Building for Evening News

LONG LEASE SIGNED BY A. T. COWAN

Two-Story Structure to Rise at 139 South Brand for Paper's Plant

Plans to house The Glendale Evening News in a $100,000 building, including the real estate investment, were announced today.

A long-term lease has been signed by A. T. Cowan, publisher and proprietor of The Glendale Evening News, by which Joe Pagliuso, owner of the block, agrees to expend not less than $25,000 in improving the present structure by adding a second story, basement, mezzanine floors and galleries for paper storage.

Most Modern Office

The R. L. Kent company of 136 South Brand boulevard already has been commissioned to do the architectural work, and the very latest improvements will be incorporated in the general scheme, it being the intent of all concerned to make the Glendale office the most modern of all newspapers on the Pacific coast, which means in all America.

Just to list a few of the features of the remodelled building: The business office will be transformed into a model of efficiency. Instead of the present one-story front, a second floor and mezzanine will be added to the front office.

Ground Floor Office

In this way the ground floor frontage will be divided into three offices, with The Glendale Evening News occupying the center, with its counter, accounting room circulation department and information desk.

Business rooms on each side will be ready for lease March 1.

KIWANIS TO BE HOST TO KIDDIES

Monster Halloween Parade and Party Is Sponsored by Glendale Club

The Glendale Kiwanis club, at luncheon in the Tuesday Afternoon club, today heard the plans for the big Hallowe'en party that the club is sponsoring on Wednesday, October 31, when every child in Glendale is invited to be the guest of the club.

A monster parade will form on Brand boulevard and will march through the principal downtown streets, when prizes will be awarded for the best decorated floats, the most striking costumes and other novelties that will be announced later by Chairman Wm. Bode, in charge of the arrangements.

The parade will end at the Glendale High school grounds, when the guests will be treated to a wiener roast around a monster bonfire, with a display of fireworks thrown in for good measure.

The club donated $25 to the relief fund for the relatives of the victims of last Saturday's fire in the Verdugo hills.

Convention Plans

Glendale Kiwanians will donate the use of their cars to carry the delegates who will join the caravan to the annual state convention at Fresno on November 15. The caravan, consisting of members from all this section of Southern California, will assemble at San Fernando at 7:30 o'clock on the morning of November 15, when they will eat breakfast at the Black Cat cafe. Lunch will be eaten at Bakersfield, where an entertainment will be staged by the Bakersfield Kiwanis club, but the local club has been asked to bring several of its own best artists to stage some particular Glendale stunt.

Fred Deal cast a number of interesting sidelights on the convention plans by telling the club members what they may expect while en route to the convention, and as they pass through the various towns on the way.

Attendance prizes were won by Jesse E. Smith and Guy Gibbs.

The usual routine business of the club was transacted.

Program of Pep and Plenty to Be Given Night of October 29

Mayor Robinson Heads General Committee and William Howe Chairman Of Body to Select Talent for Fire Victims' Benefit

The organization to have charge of the big benefit entertainment for the families of Clarence Edwards and Joseph W. McGahan, who lost their lives fighting fire in the San Rafael hills last Saturday, was perfected today. The organization will stage the entertainment in the auditorium of the Tuesday Afternoon club on the night of October 29 and tickets will sell for $1. Local talent and motion picture stars will participate.

Spencer Robinson, mayor of the city of Glendale, is general chairman of the organization. V. M. Hollister, head of Community Service, is vice chairman.

The important work of arranging the program is being handled by a committee headed by William Howe, assisted by Mrs. Daniel Campbell, Mrs. John R. Case, R. E. Tucker and Miss Louise Dresser.

The ticket committee is composed of Chalmer Day, chairman; William Twining, Mrs. A. P. Finley, Miss Eva Daniels and W. P. Potter.

The publicity committee is composed of A. T. Cowan, chairman; Al Caywood, B. S. Bernard, T. D. Watson and Loren Scoville.

Work of arranging the program is already under way and it is predicted the show will be the most varied and greatest ever staged in Glendale. The rush for tickets will become a riot, it is declared.

General Committee

Following are the names of members of the general committee and the organizations they represent:

Athletic Club Dance to Aid Fire Victims

The Glendale Athletic club is straining every nerve to make its dance in aid of the fund for the surviving relatives of J. W. McGahan and Clarence Edwards, Glendale's fire heroes, a success, and the sale of tickets already points to its being the means of swelling the fund by a substantial donation.

All the receipts from the dance, which is to be held Saturday, October 20, at the Hahn auditorium at 109 North Brand boulevard, are to be turned into the fund, and the hall has been donated free to the club by Ed Hahn. Lester Marston, proprietor of the Lunch Box, on West Broadway, is general chairman of the dance, and is working hard to increase the sale of admission tickets to the dance.

At the boxing show given by the Glendale Athletic club on Tuesday night, the fans contributed $96.18 to the fire victims' fund, tossing the money into the ring in answer to the appeal made by Lieut. W. J. Royle of the police department.

Confer On Plans For Entertaining State Clubwomen

Glendale is to be the host next April to the Los Angeles District Federation of Women's Clubs, at the twenty-third annual convention. Tentative plans for the big gathering will be made tomorrow morning, when Mrs. Charles H. Toll, president of the Los Angeles district, will confer at the Tuesday Afternoon clubhouse with a group of Tuesday Afternoon club women.

The Tuesday Afternoon committee includes Mesdames Daniel Campbell, H. E. Bartlett, A. H. Montgomery, J. E. Sargent and E. W. W. Hayward.

Convention dates will be April 8, 9 and 10, 1924, and the sessions will be held at the Tuesday Afternoon clubhouse.

Check for $50 to Be Given Mrs. Edwards

Mrs. Nanno Woods, 122 West Milford, today brought a check for $50 to The Glendale Evening News office with the statement that it was from her family and self. She requested that the check be credited to the fund being raised through The Glendale Evening News for the families of Clarence Edwards and Joseph W. McGahan, who lost their lives fighting fire. Mrs. Woods further requested that the entire check for $50 be presented to Mrs. Edwards—and at once. At Mrs. Woods' request, The Glendale Evening News will turn the check for $50 over to Mrs. Edwards.

ASTROLOGIST IN SCHICK MYSTERY

Many Books on Phenomena Found by Officers at Clark's Home

SAN DIEGO, Oct. 19.—E. Drew Clark, held for forgery and suspected of being able to solve the mystery surrounding the disappearance of George E. Schick, wealthy coal and realty operator, was a close student of astrology, Burns detectives learned here today.

Many books were found in Clark's belongings on occult and metaphysical phenomena, several of which, showing signs of much usage, were identical to those in the library of Arthur Covell, who confessed recently to instigating the murder of a woman relative at Marshfield, Ore., "by direction of the stars."

Linked With Oregon Case

Authorities today telegraphed for full information regarding the murder methods employed by the Oregon astrologist.

The grand jury was still in session today investigating the Schick case. Mrs. Schick was being grilled and Grace Lucelle Mason was expected to tell her story before the probing body this afternoon. Detectives are quizzing the two little Schick children in the belief that their prattling may shed light on the fate of their father.

Zev Will Be In Race With Papyrus Saturday

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—Zev, the three-year-old colt of the Rancocas stables, will carry America's colors against Papyrus in the international race tomorrow. The jockey club made this announcement late this afternoon officially, dispelling the wild rumors and reports current throughout the day that My Own, Admiral Cary T. Grayson's colt, would replace Zev because the latter had broken down in training.

RESCUE TWO MINERS

BINGHAM, Utah, Oct. 19.—After being buried for fifty-five hours in a stope on the 1500 foot level of the Utah Apex mine, which caved in Tuesday afternoon, Joseph Norden, mine superintendent, and Jose Ratalaza, Mexican motorman, were rescued alive at midnight last night.

30 YEARS FOR BANKER

DAYTON, Ohio, Oct. 19.—Thirty years at hard labor in the Ohio state penitentiary was the sentence imposed on John J. Schwartz, president of the Miamisburg Banking company when he pleaded guilty to embezzlement.

SAXONY AND BAVARIA IN TURMOIL

Rhenish Republic Soon to Be Proclaimed as Berlin Power Fails

TODAY IN GERMANY

By International News Service

Bavaria, which is monarchistic in sympathy, has virtually broken off relations with red Saxony, refusing to receive new Saxon envoy.

General von Loew, commander of the Reichswehr in Bavaria, has been recalled, owing to his inability to assert federal authority over that of the Bavarian state.

Dr. Hans Dorten, leader of the Rhineland secessionists, says that the time is almost ripe to proclaim a Rhenish republic absolutely independent of Germany. He predicts reds disorders throughout Germany followed by reactionary violence.

Although the German situation is tense, there were fewer reports of mob violence today.

By B. PERSON

For International News Service

WIESBADEN, Oct. 19.—"I believe that impending events in occupied territory make possible the establishing of a Rhenish republic at once," said Dr. Hans Dorten, one of the chief secessionists, today.

Dr. Dorten is tall and slender and elegantly dressed. Imposing horn-rimmed spectables accentuate his intellectual appearance. His study, where the International News Service correspondent was received, was littered with French newspapers and papers. Dorten's secretary is French, yet he steadfastly denies that he is working in the interest of France.

Steal His Thunder

Asked if it were true that the Rhenish centrist party is backing the independence movement, Dr. Dorten replied:

"Centrists are political realists. They know the movement which I started is backed by three-fourths of the population. The centrist are trying to steal my thunder.

"My original plan was to make the Rhineland autonomous, keeping it a part of the German state, but in the meantime I was persuaded that the Reich was Prussianized to such an extent that it is imperative that the Rhineland be freed, not attached in any way to Germany."

Plans Revealed

The correspondent asked:

"Do you intend to realize your aims by force?"

Dr. Dorten responded:

"If possible we will avoid use of force and I believe this will be possible. Chancellor Stresemann's dictatorial economic measures will certainly result in com-

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 19.—Four motor bandits today held up a pawn shop at Eleventh and Cherry streets, compelled one clerk to bind and gag the son of the owner and a customer, and then open the safe for them. They escaped with jewelry valued at $25,000.

ONLY 'MIRACLE' CAN PREVENT RUSSIA FROM OVERRUNNING GERMANY SAYS SENATOR KING

By WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON

For International News Service

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—Massed along the Polish border, a vast army of soviet Russian troops is held in readiness to invade Germany at any moment in support of a communistic revolution, Senator William H. King, Democrat, of Utah, declared today in warning against a threatened spread of sovietism throughout Europe.

The Russian forces, estimated at from 50,000 to 150,000, will "smash a bridge across Poland" as soon as soviet agents give the signal in Germany for a red revolt, King added. He said the prospect of a "soviet Germany" was imminent and that only a "miracle can prevent it."

The "miracle" would be settlement of the Franco-German reparations problem. He urged the American government to summon an international conference of the allied nations to determine a "fair settlement." If the conference were called, its decision would be accepted because of world public opinion, King said, even if France refused to attend.

These were the outstanding impressions gained by the senator on a 17,000 mile tour of Europe, from which he has just returned to the capital.

That Russia stands ready to throw her troops into Germany, King said, was admitted by soviet leaders, including Georges Tchitcherin, soviet minister of foreign affairs.

DRY GOVERNORS ARE VICTORIOUS

All Agree to Back Coolidge In Campaign to Make U. S. Totally Arid

WEST BADEN, Ind., Oct. 19.—Governor John M. Parker of Louisiana, resigned today from the governors' conference when that body, by an overwhelming vote, adopted a resolution sponsored by Governor Sweet of Colorado pledging the states' aid to President Coolidge in enforcing prohibition laws.

By KENNETH CLARK

For International News Service

WEST BADEN, Ind., Oct. 19. — Sweeping over the so-called wet faction, drys won a smashing victory at the concluding session of the annual governors' conference here today. Following a stormy session behind closed doors, virtually all of the state executives agreed to sign the resolution circulated by Governor Sweet, of Colorado, pledging full support of the conference to President Coolidge in the fight to uphold the prohibition law and make the United States thoroughly dry. The triumph of the drys, however, was scorned only after bitter assaults upon the resolution by Governors Parker of Louisiana and Blaine of Wisconsin. Through the efforts of these two state chiefs, Governor Sweet was forced to eliminate that portion of the resolution which declared that the conference "approved the eighteenth amendment."

Ready to Co-operate

As the resolution now stands, it is restricted solely to an expression that the governors are ready to throw complete and harmonious co-operation of their state agencies "to maintain the integrity of the constitution and the laws of the land, particularly prohibition, narcotics and immigration laws, which are to be the basis of discussion at the White House conference tomorrow afternoon.

Blaine attacked the resolution because, as he said, "I have already taken an oath as governor of Wisconsin to uphold the constitution and I resent any move to make me take that oath again."

Parker thought it entirely without the scope of the conference to adopt any such course, and charged the federal administration with the responsibility for the enforcement of the law.

Killing Frost Hits Great Lakes Country

CHICAGO, Oct. 19.—The first real bits of winter in the Great Lakes territory today brought announcement from the United States weather bureau of storm warnings on all five of the Great Lakes and forecast of cold temperatures tonight with frost general.

"Killing frost tonight" was the prediction for Minnesota.

Northwest storm warnings were displayed on Eastern Lake Michigan, Huron, Central and Eastern Superior and Western Erie and southwestern warnings on Eastern Erie and Ontario. Frost was reported from as far south as Kansas and Missouri.

DIARY EXHIBITED BY MRS. STOKES

Silent Witness Introduced to Refute Testimony of 18 Witnesses

By JACK CARBERRY

For International News Service

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—A silent witness, the diary of Mrs. Helen Elwood Stokes, former Denver society belle, defendant in the divorce action brought against her by her 3-year old millionaire husband, William Earl Dodge Stokes was expected today to be the chief proof submitted to refute the sensational charges voiced against the titian-haired beauty by the eighteen witnesses, who have so far testified against her.

Mrs. Stokes exhibited her diary this morning. It covers the entire period of her married life beginning in 1911 when, as a girl, she eloped with the aged millionaire to a New Jersey Gretana Green, up to the present time.

Jury to Hear Diary

The diary will be read to the jury by Mrs. Stokes when she takes the witness stand in her own behalf late next week, according to Samuel Untermyer, her chief counsel.

Handwriting experts will be called to prove the document authentic, and to swear that the entries made in 1911 and following years, are not recent writings—a contention which already has been voiced by her husband.

The written record, as shown by Mrs. Stokes is, perhaps, a document without parallel in court records. It tells a story of the young girl who married a man of age and wealth. The first entries are the story of expected happiness, with constant reference to the husband in terms of endearment.

Tells of Abuses

Later, events are recorded in which the young wife, at the dates mentioned an expectant mother, records a series of alleged abuses.

The diary will be introduced as a strategical move by the defense.

Stokes, it is now believed, will not take the witness stand against his wife, although Mrs. Stokes has waived the right which prevents a husband from testifying against his mate in the New York courts. None but Stokes, however, can refute the entries of Mrs. Stokes' diary.

Dozen in Wilson Mail Theft Ring Located

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 19.—Furnished with a secret "tip" that more than a dozen of the suspected members of the crime ring responsible for the $16,000,000 postoffice and department store robberies throughout the country are in Southern California, federal authorities left Los Angeles today in groups for unstated parts of the southland. The hunt for members of the asserted ring, against whom federal indictments have been returned, was renewed with new enthusiasm today as the result of the capture late yesterday of Harry Thomas Robinson, an alleged member of the ring.

Peace Dove Hovers Over Scene of Stormy Sessions As Convention Ends

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 19.—After the longest balloting and the closest contest in the history of the American Legion, John R. Quinn of California, was late today elected national commander. Quinn won out over James A. Drain of Washington, D. C., after the two had run a neck and neck race for several ballots. The Californian nominated as the "educated cowboy," won on the eleventh ballot.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 19. After being torn by the bitter fight over adoption of a resolution advocating law-enforcement and tolerance toward all races, colors and creeds, the dove of peace hovered this morning over the fifth annual convention of the American Legion and convention leaders asserted that before final adjournment late today the organization would stand united. As the ripples from the storm subsided, the veterans' chiefs were whipping tangled ends together in an effort to ring down the convention curtain with accomplishment of the most constructive program of work in the organization's history, the program featuring a campaign for adjusted compensation, better hospitalization and care for sick and wounded veterans and a more definite stand upon Americanism.

WEST BROADWAY'S FUTURE ASSURED

Widening, Lighting and Other Improvements Are Discussed

West Broadway will now take its stand with Brand boulevard, Colorado street, Glendale avenue, San Fernando road and East Broadway as one of the chief thoroughfares of this city, predicts O. M. Newby, president of the West Broadway Improvement association, basing his opinion on action of the city council last night in instituting widening proceedings along this street, from Central to Pacific avenue.

The action was taken as the result of a petition signed by 59 per cent of frontage owners in the path of the proposed improvement, calling for the street to be widened ten feet on each side, within the above limits.

Mr. Newby, accompanied by a number of others interested, presented the petition to the council last night.

To Extend Street

"While condemnation proceedings may now be instituted," says Mr. Newby, "we believe we will be able to secure by deed the property needed for the improvement. As West Broadway is now a 60-foot street, the proposed 10-foot strip on both sides will give us an 80-foot boulevard from Central to Pacific avenue, where plans are under way to put through an 80-foot boulevard clear across San Fernando road to within 1000 feet of the Los Angeles river.

"When the Colorado street bridge has been thrown over this river, connecting Glendale directly with Riverside drive and Griffith Park, Los Angeles, the next logical move will be to continue West Broadway into the park, by means of a second bridge.

"With petitions now circulating for a West Broadway ornamental street lighting system from Central avenue to San Fernando road, things along this important highway may be said to be coming into their own.

Saxony and Bavaria Split on Authority

munist disorders throughout Germany and these will be promptly followed by reactionary coups culminating in civil wars. That will be the psychological moment for the Rhineland to declare its independence."

Crisis in Bavaria Faces Government

By S. D. WEYER
For International News Service

BERLIN, Oct. 19.—The Berlin government today recalled General von Lossow, commander of the Reichswehr in Bavaria, who has been unable to assert state authority over Dr. Von Kahr, the Bavarian premier and dictator. Although federal authority was vested in General von Lossow, he was incapable of enforcing his demands in Bavaria, being defied by the various branches of the nationalist party.

In view of the continued conflict of authority in Saxony and Bavaria, the national government was faced with the choice of either cancelling the state-wide state of emergency altogether or carrying out a stern military program everywhere.

It is no secret that the nationalists want Bavaria to supplant Prussia as the dominant power in Germany. On the other hand the communist leaders in Saxony, some of whom are members of the government, demand red rule throughout Germany.

The followers of Dr. Hitler, leaders of the Bavarian nationalists (fascisti) contend that Bavaria is the only state in the country that is peaceful and orderly. They assert that there is continued disorders in Saxony which proves that the nationalist rule is better for Germany than communism.

Another element of the situation is that Bavaria, being mainly agricultural, is self-supporting, while Saxony, being an industrial state, is suffering from unemployment, high cost of living and industrial unrest.

P. E. Plans Garage to House Local Busses

A garage to house the six busses operating in this vicinity will be constructed at once by the Pacific Electric Company in Glendale. Representatives of the company were here Thursday night in conference with Building Inspector Vandewater, to obtain data as to the city's legal requirements.

The company's plan could not be accepted in detail by the building inspector and the representatives returned to Los Angeles to make the necessary changes. The garage is to be built at Broadway and Sycamore Canyon road, the terminus of the East Broadway line.

BIRTHS

A baby girl was born early this morning, October 19, 1923, at the Glendale Sanitarium and Hospital to Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Bletcher, 712 North Kenwood. Mother and daughter are getting along nicely.

Apron Shower

Miss Harriet Barnes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Barnes, formerly of Glendale, who is to become the bride of Ralph Lockwood of San Francisco, November 27, was honored yesterday with an apron shower at the John A. Logan home at 122 East Park avenue.

The Logan home was prettily arranged with pink and white cosmos, while the appointments for refreshments carried out the Halloween idea.

Miss Barnes and many of the guests attended school together in Glendale.

Mr. Lockwood's mother and sister, Miss Luella, were among the guests, as was Miss Barnes' mother. Mrs. George Truitt of Los Angeles was also invited.

Other guests were Miss Jean Seaman of Ohio, Mesdames Wayne Smith, Noble J. Ripley, Alan MacKenzie, Fred Wilson, Hal Hargraves, Mansford Barnes, Olaf Andresen, Mildred Dair, Roland Brown, A. M. Pearson, Glendale; Misses Pearl Pollock of Ocean Park, and Misses Helen Beach, Lois Sherwood, Emma Sebastain, Helen Vredenberg of Glendale.

Older matrons present were Mesdames John Hobbs, A. Stephenson and J. A. Logan.

At Shively Home

Chapter CJ, of P. E. O. met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. G. Shively, 451 West Myrtle street, with thirteen members present.

The afternoon's program included an interesting talk by Mrs. D. W. Porter on the history of California Mission"; piano solos by Mrs. E. W. W. Hayward, and Parliamentary drill by Miss Martha Cox.

The next meeting will be held November 1, at the home of Mrs. R. L. Bocock of 333 West Patterson avenue. This will be an all-day meeting.

Big Stunt Party

Senior and junior high school girls will participate tonight in a jolly stunt party in the girls' gymnasium at the high school. The entertainment will consist of stunts given by the classes, the faculty and graduate students. A prize will be given for the most original costume.

On October 26 the sophomore and freshman girls will have a similar affair.

Broadway P.-T. A.

A very enthusiastic meeting held yesterday afternoon by the members of the Broadway Parent-Teacher association with an attendance of more than sixty members and friends.

Preceding the regular business session, a short meeting was held by the members of the executive board. During the regular business session which was in charge of the president, Mrs. C. R. Rettberg, plans were inaugurated for a "fathers' night" program and reception to be held on Friday night, October 26.

The principal speaker yesterday was Miss Lynch of the home economics department of the southern branch of the University of California, who gave a very interesting talk on "The Budget System." Miss Lynch stated that "the budget system is to the housekeeper what blue prints are to the builder." She also stated that of every income 25 per cent should be spent for food, 20 per cent for shelter, 15 per cent for clothing, 15 per cent for overhead expense, and 25 per cent for savings and higher life.

Mrs. Mary O. Ryan, principal of the school, also gave an interesting talk on "Thrift," bringing out the fact that thrift means not only the saving of money, but to thrive is to save in time, health and energy.

Other numbers on the program included a piano solo by Mrs. Webster, "Convent Bells," by Rubenstein; vocal solo by Miss Jacob, "Rose in the Bud," Dorothy Foster; Reading by Miss Hudson, "In the Closet"; reading by Elizabeth Hoffman, and talk by Miss Hudson relative to the Chautauqua chart and desk, for the use of small children in the home.

Following the program, a social hour was enjoyed and tea and cakes served.

New Club Section

A broadening of the activity of the Thursday Afternoon club was begun at the club meeting yesterday afternoon in the K. P. hall, when it was announced that an arts and crafts section is to be organized under the curatorship of Mrs. McNaughton Barnes. The section, which is the first formed in the club, will meet on the third Thursday of each month in the K. P. hall.

Another important action taken at the club meeting, directed by the president, Mrs. E. V. Bacon, was voting $5 to the relief fund for the aid of Mrs. Johanna Edwards and Mrs. J. W. McGahan and children.

Acknowledgment was made of the complimentary tickets sent to Mrs. Bacon by the Tuesday Afternoon club. The club voted for a $5 membership in the Glendale auxiliary of the Children's hospital.

Those voted into membership were Mesdames May P. Moberly, Lanin, Heacock, Rose, and Misses Crossland and Showgrin.

Hostesses were Mesdames Sylvia Storer, Sarah Ryan, J. E. Tague and A. G. Coleman.

For New Members

Members of the Pacific Methodist church entertained with a reception last Tuesday night in honor of the new members and the pastor, Rev. H. C. Mullen and family.

The church has been artistically decorated for the occasion with a profusion of dahlias, cosmos and greenery.

The members of the church are happy over the reappointment of Rev. Mullen and pledged themselves to join him in doing a great work during the coming year.

The following program was presented: Piano solo by Miss Sarah Hommer, duet by Miss Hommer and George Moore, "Whispering Hope"; and short addresses of welcome by George Moore, representing trustees of the church; Albert Horn, superintendent of the Sunday school; Mrs. George Moore, superintendent of the primary department; Mrs. Scott of the Aid, Mrs. B. Wilson of the Missionary society. A song composed by Miss Olive Pixley was also sung by Miss Sarah Hommer.

The Coast to Coast Army store, 145 South Brand boulevard, northwest corner of Brand boulevard and Harvard street, opening at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning, Saturday, October 20, invites the public of this city to come and get acquainted. That is the greeting of S. D. Goldsmith, proprietor.

"We are not connected at the present time with any other store in Glendale," Mr. Goldsmith states. "The store at the above address is the first we have opened in Southern California. It is two doors south of The Glendale Evening News office.

"After looking over many cities up and down the state, we selected Glendale because we believe it is leading them all. I personally am very glad, indeed, that I am now doing business in this fast-growing city and will be a resident here.

"We have secured a long lease at the above location and are here to stay. We are people who know the merchandise business from the ground up and our get-acquainted sale starting tomorrow morning will serve to introduce to shoppers of Glendale our business methods by which we can offer the highest grade of goods at astonishing prices.

"We aim particularly to serve the working man and to this end our stock of goods is complete to the last detail of his needs. From shoes to blankets, we have everything. Inspection will establish this claim. A visit to the Coast to Coast Army store tomorrow morning will open up a new line of thought to shoppers."

The store will be open every evening until 9 o'clock for the benefit of the working man. The slogan of the firm is "The store that makes your dollar have more sense."

Fathers' Night

The "Fathers' Night" program presented last night at the school under the auspices of the Columbus Avenue Parent-Teacher association, proved to be a most interesting and enjoyable affair.

During the business session with the president, Mrs. C. P. Tedford in charge, plans were inaugurated for a Fathers' Auxiliary. A. J. Van Wie was appointed chairman, who will make further announcements relative to the organization of this auxiliary at a later date.

Contributions received during the evening for the school library will add over thirty books to the shelves.

The evening's program included piano solos by Mrs. Pendleton; vocal solo by Mrs. C. H. Meyers, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Gertrude Erb and Mr. Meyers on the cello; reading by Mrs. Canfield; vocal solos by C. H. Meyers.

The rest of the evening was devoted to a social time at which time refreshments were served.

THEATRES

THE GLENDALE

"The Girl Who Came Back," Tom Forman's elaborate screen version of the stage play of that name, now showing at the Glendale Theatre, offers cast, production and beautiful photography in a combination that is hard to beat.

Among those who go to make the film a success are Miriam Cooper, Kenneth Harlan, Gaston Glass, Joseph Dowling, Zasu Pitts, Fred Malatesta and Ethel Shannon. The story involves the regeneration of a girl whose efforts to clean the slate of her life form a nucleus for much dramatic action, carrying the audience from the slums of New York to southermost Africa, where a tremendous moral battle is fought "on the rim of the world."

The untangling of this unusual situation provides splendid opportunities for a number of tense situations.

Student Program

A student program was presented last night at the Emerson School of Self Expression. There were two departments of the school represented by the entertainers, the piano department, in charge of Miss Besse Long, and the adult and children's department of expression, in charge of Mrs. Evelyn M. S. Labadie.

THE GATEWAY

"The Midnight Alarm" continues at the Gateway theatre, with Alice Calhoun in the lead, where it is enjoying a highly successful run. Supporting the star is a capable cast including Percy Marmont, Cullen Landis and Joseph Kilgour.

A total of fourteen outstanding thrills may be counted in this dramatic picture. These thrills are so skillfully interwoven with the romantic fabric of the story by David Smith, director, that they serve to maintain interest at a high pitch from first to last.

"The Midnight Alarm" depicts a spectacular fire sequence, a train crash, a near-wreck of a train at a drawbridge, rescue of the heroine from a vault in a blazing building, and many other high spots. Through every scene, Alice Calhoun stands out with her vivacious and charming personality.

For Mrs. Hepburn

Mrs. D. W. Hepburn of 635 North Howard street was the honoree at a delightful informal affair given yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Albert Gafford, 115 West Elk street. Mrs. J. L. Burton and Mrs. George H. Guenther were assisting hostesses.

Those present included Mesdames D. P. Brown, J. LaRock, Noehly, E. Burton, T. Pierson, E. Hamlin, C. E. Bouten, J. E. Balthis, T. J. McKinney, J. Thompson, Landon, A. G. Smith, E. EVENING NEWS BUILDING PLAN

Latest Modern Devices of Printing Industry to Be Installed

1924, to offices such as brokerage concerns, where telegraph and telephone facilities will be most convenient.

On the mezzanine floor the classified department's telephone clerks, the display advertising department and its workroom, as well as other executive and promotion departments, will be comfortably housed.

Spacious Second Floor

On the second floor front will be located the editorial rooms, telegraph room, library, morgue and private offices. A main staircase will lead to the upper floors, while tubes will be used to transmit copy to the composing room, located back of the business office on the main floor.

The composing room will take over that space now occupied by the job printing and commercial publishing department, the latter to be maintained on the second floor in new quarters provided by a two-story and basement addition on the rear.

In the new structure a basement will include garage and storage space made accessible by a ramp driveway from the alley. This will house The Glendale Evening News' fleet of motor cars.

Large Investment Planned

On the ground floor of the rear building, combining it with the present room, there will be arrangements made to accommodate a high-speed perfecting press, using stereotype plates, as well as the necessary stereotyping room, which will entail a large capital investment on the part of the publisher of The Glendale Evening News.

Eventually an additional $75,000 in new machinery will be invested in producing a better and bigger evening newspaper in Glendale during the coming twelve months, with double that sum already expended in the building of the business.

A gallery, commonly called a "paper deck," on which two carloads of print paper may be stored convenient to the press room, will be made practical by a traveling crane for unloading. Above this, on the second floor, in most commodious quarters, about 36x50 feet in dimension, will be located the commercial printing department of The Glendale Evening News, which will be unequalled in the San Fernando valley.

Complete Job Plant

First of all, on occupying the new plant, the job printing machinery, including three platen presses, one Miehle cylinder flatbed press, a Seybold power cutter, a typesetting machine, Cleveland folder, Boston wire stitcher, type racks, and a $5000 stock of cardboard and paper will be moved to the new quarters.

The Glendale Evening News printing and publishing department has become one of the biggest factors in the commercial life of the community, employing ten or more people, exclusive of the newspaper staff, and it will be amply cared for.

As for the newspaper plant, there will be additional linotype machines, stereotyping equipment, a perfecting press capable to turning out the largest edition of The Glendale Evening News in the course of a day's work, and a complete re-arrangement of the composing room to efficiently produce the biggest and best newspaper in the San Fernando valley.

All of these improvements will come in rapid succession, marking a new era in the life of Glendale's own home town newspaper, and making more certain its continued claim of being the best-equipped suburban daily plant in Southern California.

Ready for Expansion

The time for expansion and development has arrived, just as the day of the largest concerns coming into this field have determined that Glendale is sufficiently metropolitan to justify the investment. The Glendale Evening News office will be the only two-story building devoted to printing in this city. It will be one of the few buildings boasting a basement garage, which will aid in relieving the downtown traffic situation.

And, best of all, it will be built by a Glendale man, for a Glendale concern, with Glendale at heart.

Filipinos Develop Into Capable Golfers

MANILA, Oct. 19.—The ancient and royal game of golf has taken the Filipinos by storm. Two years ago not more than half a dozen Filipinos swung a mashie, and those that did would have considered 100 as a score to be proud of. Today they have a club of their own and a beautiful nine-hole course on the outskirts of Manila. The Wack Wacks, as they call themselves, are making rapid strides in the game and soon their best players will be able to give the local Americans a run for their money.

That the Filipinos have a natural aptitude for golf is evidenced by the phenomenal proficiency displayed by some of the caddies on the local links, boys ranging in age from eight to fifteen, who have obtained all their golfing knowledge from watching Americans play. The caddies on the municipal links recently held a tournament of their own and four of them did the course in bogie or better. It is no uncommon thing for these youngsters to make a 200-yard drive.

Georgia Chiggers Are Fond of Girl Scouts

CLOUDLAND, Ga., Oct. 19.—A scourge of red Georgian chiggers has invaded the peaceful summer camp of girl scouts near this town. The World War song, "They Go Wild, Simply Wild, Over Me," has been ushered into prominence again.

"Such a horde of these insignificant insects are invading our camp that they are now staking homesteads on our bodies," ejaculated one tanned and robust Georgian beauty.

Despite this unexpected pestilence, the girls are carrying on their work with scheduled success. It is the sixth national training school for scouts and scout officers and is reported to be the largest in history. Ten southern states are represented.

Your best intentions are no better than your desire to put them into execution.

OAKLAND CAR IN STRIKING TESTS

4-Wheel Brakes Prove Their Power to Halt Flying Auto on Wet Street

A remarkable demonstration of the new "True Blue" Oakland six four-wheel brake car, was given at 10 o'clock this morning at the corner of Harvard and Orange streets, when, on a wet pavement, the machine was brought from thirty miles an hour to a dead stop in less than thirty feet, with no appreciable skid.

The driver of the machine was Clay Risser. With him rode E. J. Fortman, factory representative. The car is one of a fleet of "True Blue Travelers" that left Pontiac, Mich., where the Oakland Motor Car plant is located, to tour the country, giving these demonstrations.

"Glendale is city No. 19 where this wet pavement demonstration has been pulled," states Mr. Fortman. "We left Pontiac September 8, and have been 100 per cent successful in every demonstration we have given. Our speedometer was set at zero when we left. It now registers 5353 miles.

Cuts Braking Space

"The ordinary two-wheel brake car, according to accurate police tests, required 83.3 feet to come from thirty miles an hour to a complete stop, on dry pavement. The Oakland cuts this distance nearly in third, with its full stop record in thirty feet, a remarkable achievement and one that proves beyond question the superiority of the four-wheel brake principle as worked out by Oakland."

Thos. E. Ricketts, local distributor, Oakland Sales & Service company, 219 West Colorado street, who watched this demonstration, states that it serves only to make known to a wider public remarkable facts concerning the Oakland car that are already well known to himself and his organization.

Scientists to Probe Whale's Private Lives

A biologist with a genius for leading men and following whales is required for the expedition financed by the government of the Falkland Islands.

The members of the expedition will sail in Scott's historic ship, the Discovery, to pry into the private lives of whales and to draw up a legislative scheme for their protection.

The chosen leader will receive a salary of $5,000 a year and all found (including the whales), and he is chiefly required to devise a method whereby whales may be marked and recognized. Captain Stenhouse, the hero of many Antarctic expeditions, will skipper the Discovery.

CONTROLS GREAT POWER

It has been estimated that 10,000,000 horsepower can be derived from the rivers of Papua, which now is under the control of the government of Australia.

The less one thinks, the bolder he gets.

Hard Labor Is Urged For Immoral People

LONDON, Oct. 19.—Hard labor for infidelity is one of the suggestions for the elimination of "English immorality" made by T Ernle Fowle, a well-known figure in rural Britain.

Following are the chief points in the scheme for the purification of England and the world generally:

Divorce—Persons convicted of infidelity should have six months "hard labor" and imprisonment.

Protection of Children.—Flogging should form part of the punishment for immoral offenses against children.

Night Clubs.—The government should inquire into the ultimate object of certain night clubs.

Fowle advocates plenty of healthy amusements in country areas and the formation of a league in every village to hinder immorality. Greater, but non-gagging, parental control of children is needed, he declares, and parents should decline to entertain ladies who wear insufficient or transparent clothes.

WON'T HURT PAINT

MUSIC CO. OPENS MAMMOTH SALE

Salmacia Brothers Celebrate Eighth Anniversary by Huge Bargain Offer

Eight years of progress that has marched with Glendale's progress, step for step, is celebrated this week by the mammoth expansion and anniversary sale of the Glendale Music company, which is staging this sale in all of its three establishments, one at the Brunswick Shoppe, 125 South Brand boulevard; the Glendale Music company, at 109 North Brand boulevard, and at the San Fernando Music company store, at 1015 Porter street, San Fernando.

Frank and Vincent Salmacia, who founded the business here in 1915, with one employe to assist them in their pioneer store, have built up their business in the past eight years until today they have eighteen highly-paid experts on the pay roll, and occupy three establishments in the pivotal business cities of the rich San Fernando valley.

"The success that has followed our efforts," says Frank Salmacia, "has been due to hard work and the appreciation of that fact that quick turnover on all our merchandise pointed the way to progress. We have bought in carload lots, at rock bottom prices for first-class merchandise, and we have sold at a margin of profit that made our prices attractive to the music lovers of Glendale and San Fernando. This saving in cost we have passed on to our patrons, and that they appreciate our busineess methods is shown by the manner in which they have stood by us and helped us to build up our trade to its present proportions.

The growth of the business has made an enlargement of their present accommodations imperative, and, during the time these alterations are being carried out, the firm is offering substantial reductions on practically every line of musical instruments in their immense stock, at discounts that range all the way from 20 to 50 per cent, with special terms to the purchasers who do not desire to pay the entire amount at the time they buy.

The activity of the Salmacia brothers has not been confined to the sale of musical instruments. They have placed their resources at the disposal of the members of Glendale's musical circles unreservedly, time and again, and have built up a friendship that they regard as one of the greatest assets of the firm, and one that cannot be measured in dollars and cents.

Animals Can Predict Earthquakes, Claim

Animals can tell in advance when a bad earthquake or volcanic eruption is about to occur. In Sicily dogs showed great uneasiness two days before the eruption of Etna. Cats carried their kittens away from houses, and hares seemed stupefied by fright.

Similar knowledge was exhibited by animals before the great Valparaiso earthquake of 1906, but in this case horses and cattle as well as dogs were desperately uneasy for 24 hours before the big shock. Dogs howled all night, and cattle lowed.

Before the Messina earthquake of January, 1915, birds were noticed to be flying in flocks, evidently greatly disturbed.

One explanation of this sense possessed by dumb creatures may be that animals, having finer powers of hearing than man, may detect underground rumblings or quiverings which men cannot sense. Or it may be that there is some electric tension which affects them.

AUTOMATIC TELEPHONE

Successful in other English cities, an automatic telephone system is planned for London which is expected to require fifteen years to complete.

Your plans are no bigger than your strength to execute them.

Genuine Upholstered Furniture

Those who know, realize that things unseen count most in buying Upholstered Furniture. In judging such furniture, how much do you really know? For instance, there is a vast difference in frames that are made of wood that endures for years and those that soon split. There is a reason why the construction of one frame holds together indefinitely and another pulls apart. Filling, springs, edge and webbing—each tells a lasting story of comfort and satisfaction. Each much be understood to be appreciated. Let us explain these important details to you in our factory.

JOHN R. QUINN NEW LEGION HEAD

Big Program for 1924 Is Adopted by Veterans at Convention

Lawrence, Kas., and General James A. Drain, Washington, D. C., attorney, were this morning most prominently mentioned for the position of commander to succeed Alvin Owsley of Texas. In the background loomed Joseph H. Thompson of Pennsylvania; John R. Quinn of California, and Thomas Swayle, of Washington. Swayle's chances were reported to be slight. There remained, too, the possibility of a dark horse candidate riding to victory at the last minute in a spectacular race.

Metcalfe was being strongly supported by middle western, some southern and most western states, while a majority of eastern and southeastern delegates were solidly behind Drain.

At the outset of the session this morning prominent legionnaires denied that any resolutions adopted by the convention were aimed at the Ku Klux Klan or any particular organization.

Minnesota delegates were jubilant over the selection of St. Paul as the convention city for next year. The veterans also decided to make plans to hold their 1928 convention in Paris, celebrating the tenth anniversary of the signing of the armistice.

With Mrs. Donald Macree of Council Bluffs, Iowa, national vice-president, and Mrs. O. D. Oliphant of Trenton, N. J., most prominently mentioned as candidates for president, the American Legion auxiliary delegates will elect new officers before adjournment of the convention this afternoond.

General Metcalfe was the first candidate to be nominated before the convention. Delegate Buckner of Michigan gained the floor and placed his name in nomination.

Aaron Shapiro of San Francisco next nominated John R. Quinn of California as the "educated cowboy" candidate.

The name of General Clarence R. Edwards of Massachusetts, the choice of the New England delegation for commander, was the third placed before the convention,. John S. Herbert of Massachusetts, making the nominating speech.

D. J. Markey of Baltimore next nominatd General James A. Drain of Washington, D. C., for commander.

As the "first buck private" candidate, William P. Healey of Pennsylvania, was the fifth candidate to be placed before the convention.

Smith and Richter to Fly Length of U. S.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 19.—Seeking to establish a new record for a non-stop flight by means of re-fueling in air, four United States army planes were today en route to the Canadian border.

Starting from a suitable flying field to be selected on the Canadian border, Lieutenant L. B. Smith with Lieutenant L. P. Richter as observer, will attempt to fly to the Mexican border in the vicinity of Tia Juana without stopping. At Eugene, Ore., Lieutenants Hine and Seifert will be waiting with a plane to re-fuel the flyers in mid-air and Captain Irvin and Lieutenant McNeal will perform the same task at Sacramento.

The attempt will probably be made next week if flying conditions warrant. Four planes made the trip north to prepare for the flights, stopping at Eugene, Portland and Seattle en route to the Canadian border.

Slogan Is Adopted

"A Day's Wages for the Widows and Children of the Fire Victims."

That is the slogan adopted by the committee appointed by the Glendale Chamber of Commerce to aid in raising funds for the members of the families of J. W. McGahan and Clarence Edwards, Glendale heroes who laid down their lives in last Saturdays's disastrous fire.

The meeting was held in the Chamber of Commerce rooms last night on the call of Dan Campbell, chairman, those present besides Mr. Campbell being A. T. Cowan, publisher of The Glendale Evening News, and Alfred E. Barron, representing the American Legion post. Mr. Campbell was chosen permanent chairman of the committee; Mr. Cowan secretary, and Herman Nelson, manager of the Glendale Avenue Branch of the Pacific Southwest Trust & Savings bank, treasurer.

R. Ernest Tucker, secretary of Community Service, was appointed a committee of one to appoint committees from the various civic organizations to aid in drawing up the program that is to be presented at the mammoth benefit for the bereaved members of the McGahan and Edwards families at the Tuesday Afternoon club auditorium on October 29.

Ministers to Help

Letters will be addressed to all Glendale ministers, asking them to announce to their congregations on Sunday the date of the benefit and also to urge the members to attend the performance and to show their sympathy with the stricken ones in a real, practical fashion, by contributing to the limit of their ability, to make the future smooth for the dependents of those who made the supreme sacrifice to save Glendale from the flames.

All local banks have been authorized to accept donations for the fund that is swelling daily as the generous people of Glendale send in their contributions, and cards will be displayed in the local business houses urging everyone to call at his or her bank and subscribe to the fund. Cards will also be placed in all the banks designating them as authorized agencies for the receipt of donations.

Window cards will also be distributed urging the people to give to the fund. The Glendale Evening News columns will remain open until October 29 to receive contributions to the fund. All subscriptions turned into this office will be credited in these columns.

The management of all the local theatres will also be asked to announce the date of the benefit and at the same time to urge on the patrons that they give freely to the fund.

Y. M. C. A. to Help

The whole-hearted support of the Glendale Y. M. C. A. organizations to any movement to swell the relief fund is pledged by Rev. C. Kelley, local Y. M. C. A. executive.

"We're behind the big benefit affair," says Mr. Kelley, "and will do anything we can to help. The Y. M. C. A. boys are fine ticket-sellers and will be glad to aid the benefit in this way."

Dr. W. C. Mabry, commander of the Glendale camp of Spanish War Veterans, and Mrs. Mary R. Hill, president of the Women's auxiliary of the camp, heartily indorsed the relief fund this morning.

"It is a fine thing, and the Spanish War Veterans are behind any worthy cause and are ready to help all we can," said Dr. Mabry.

Mrs. Hill said: "At our next meeting we will undoubtedly take action toward a contribution to the relief fund."

The past presidents' unit of the Tuesday Afternoon club is in full sympathy with the relief movement, according to Mrs. R. A. Blackburn, head of the past presidents.

Teachers Vote Money

"The Glendale City Teachers' club voted $10 yesterday to the relief fund," said Mrs. Mary Ogden Ryan, president, "and we're back of the big benefit to be given next week."

George McDill, head of the "Men's Brotherhood Federation of Glendale Churches, says: "This relief work is most worthy, and should have the support of every Glendalian."

"I want to see Glendale go over the top in this relief work," says Mrs. A. H. Montgomery, first vice-president of the Tuesday Afternoon club. "I will do everything I can to increase the fund and help with the benefit program."

Knights of Columbus

Glendale Knights of Columbus are behind the big relief movement, according to Grand Knight Jesse E. Smith. "We've alredy consented to furnish one number on the benefit program."

"Glendale Woodmen are behind you," said Dr. Bion S. Warner, head of that organization.

Another hearty endorsement comes from Dr. F. M. Rossiter, president of the Glendale Physicians' club. "We are certainly supporting the relief work for the mother and little family of Mr. Edwards and Mrs. McGahan, and want the benefit to be a great success."

Glendale Sciots are active boosters for the relief fund, announces H. M. Bennett, toparch. "It is possible that we will arrange a special matinee circus performance, and the entire proceeds will go to the relief fund."

The clinks in the grate will smother your home fire while you are absent from home.

Evening News Lists Donors To Fire Fund

Showers of blessings—meaning checks, greenbacks and silver coins—continue to fall upon the families of Clarence Edwards and Joseph W. McGahan, who lost their lives fighting fire in the San Rafael hills east of Glendale last Saturday.

Readers of The Glendale Evening News are big-hearted people—they are showing that in a material way. They are backing up their sympathy for the bereaved families with their pocketbooks.

Banks of the city are authorized to receive contributions to the fund being raised through The Glendale Evening News. The list appearing in this paper will be held open for subscriptions until October 29, the tentative date for the benefit entertainment.

Subscriptions received at The Glendale Evening News office will be credited in these columns.

The committee to administer the fund is composed of Mrs. Daniel Campbell, president of the Tuesday Afternoon club; Spencer Robinson, mayor of the city of Glendale; Chalmer Day, commander Glendale post, American Legion; W. S. Ingram, of The Glendale Evening News.

A RARE OPPORTUNITY

A fine 7-room home with land enough surrounding it to accommodate a bungalow court of eight units.

This 7-room home is built right—large living room with real fireplace—dining room with all built-ins—big bath room and kitchen—Breakfast room with built-in buffet, and a commodious sleeping porch, well built and plastered, with ample room for two large beds—all kinds of fine fruit trees, shrubs roses, etc., etc.

This property may easily be divided into a lot, 65x135 surrounding the house and an L-shaped lot upon which a bungalow court may readily be built.

This property is located within one block and a half of Glendale Ave. new car line, and is ideally located for income property as outlined. It may be purchased for $13,650, with advantageous terms.

A GOOD INVESTMENT

A good home—only a block from East Broadway, on a lot 50x150, going back to a 20-foot alley. A large cheerful living room with specially built book cases to accommodate a real library. A fireplace, etc.—Bedrooms are larger and much better ventilated than usual. Both dining room and kitchen are convenient and modern. The specially desirable features about this property are the arrangement of the rooms; the convenient and desirable location, and the depth of the lot, which makes it especially desirable either for a home or two income properties—Then, too, the price is right—Only $6550—Easy terms

NOTICE OF SALE OF REAL ESTATE UNDER EXECUTION

Sheriff's Sale—No. B-26891

I. R. M. GORDON, Plaintiff vs. TUJUNGA WATER & POWER CO., a Corporation, Defendant.

By virtue of an execution issued out of the Superior Court of the County of Los Angeles, State of California, wherein J. R. M. Gordon, plaintiff, and Tujunga Water & Power Company, a corporation, defendant, upon a judgment rendered the 26th day of April, A. D. 1916, for the sum of Two Thousand Five Hundred Eighty-eight and 53-100 ($2,588.53) Dollars lawful money of the United States, besides costs and interest, I have levied upon all the right, title, claim, and interest of said defendant Tujunga Water & Power Company, a corporation, of, in and to the following described real estate, situate in the County of Los Angeles, State of California, and bounded and described as follows:

All the right, title and interest of the Tujunga Water & Power Company, in and to the following described real and personal property, to-wit:

PARCEL NO. 1—Lot five (5), of Section six (6), township two (2), north range thirteen (13) west, S. B. M., in the County of Los Angeles, State of California, containing forty (40) acres, more or less.

PARCEL NO. 2.—All of lot one (1) of the West portion of the Tujunga Ranch, as per map thereof recorded in book 29, pages 50 and 51, Miscellaneous Records Los Angeles County, saving and excepting from said lot one (1) that portion thereof heretofore conveyed by the Tujunga Water & Power Company to Henry S. Van Dyke, by deed recorded in book 4098, page 281 of deeds, Los Angeles County records. Said parcel No. 2 being one hundred and fifty (150) acres more or less.

PARCEL NO. 3.—All of that certain piece or parcel of land situate in the County of Los Angeles, State of California, (being twenty-four (24) acres more or less) and more particularly bounded and described in that certain deed from Charles E. Rancier to Tujunga Water & Power Company, recorded in book 2064, page 294 of deeds Los Angeles County records, to which said deed and record thereof reference is hereby made and had for further and more particular description.

PARCEL NO. 4.—All property rights and privileges, easements and franchises of every nature, kind and character whatsoever, owned, operated or controlled by the said Tujunga Water & Power Company in and to water, water rights, dams, dam sites, reservoirs and reservoir locations, rights of way and other easements, in the Angeles National Forest reserve, granted by or otherwise obtained from the Department of the Interior of the United States, or other source, including ten (10) dam and reservoir locations, rights of way for pipes and pipe lines, and all improvements made or done by the said Tujunga Water & Power Company and its grantors.

PARCEL NO. 5.—All water contracts covering one thousand six hundred and sixty-six (1666) acres of irrigable land in Hensen Heights Tract and Tract No. 102, in the County of Los Angeles, State of California, as shown on map book 13, at pages 142 and 143 and page 57, respectively.

PARCEL NO. 6.—All ditches, flumes, conduits, aqueducts, pipes, pipe lines and distributing systems, same being two and one-eighth (2 1-8) miles of two inch redwood pipe twenty-four (24) inch by twenty-four (24) inches in diameter, reinforced with steel bands, and ten (10) miles of steel pipe and outlets for delivery of water, located in said Hensen Heights Tract, Tract No. 102, and west portion of Tujunga Ranch, in Los Angeles County, State of California.

PARCEL NO. 7.—Rights of way for two (2) pipe lines over property known as the Allec Ranch in Monte Vista Tract, and rights of way over land of J. Johnson and wife, F. A. Johnson and wife, and C. B. Johnson, as more fully appears from description in book 1107, page 88 of Deeds, Los Angeles County Records.

PARCEL NO. 8.—Rights of way or other easements necessary or convenient to the proper construction and maintenance of piping systems over and across all lands in lots 1 to 85, both inclusive, in said Hensen Heights Tract, and lots 1 to 88, both inclusive, in said Tract No. 102, County of Los Angeles, State of California.

PARCEL NO. 9.—Rights of way for pipes, power and conduit lines, and for railways over and across lots 1, 24, 23, 22, 21, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, West Portion of Tujunga Ranch as per map thereof recorded in book 29, pages 51 and 52, Los Angeles County records.

PARCEL NO. 10.—All riparian rights, water appropriations and water rights of every description in or upon or pertaining to the Big Tujunga Creek and its tributaries, made or acquired by said Tujunga Water & Power Company.

PARCEL NO. 11.—All that property described in a certain deed from Samuel Merril, et al, to the Hamilton Irrigation Company, recorded in book 1026, page 113 of deeds, Los Angeles County records. To said deed and record thereof reference is hereby made and had for further and more particular description.

Saving and excepting from the above described property, that property described as follows, to-wit:

PARCEL A.—That portion of lot 1 of the West portion of Tujunga Ranch, County of Los Angeles, State of California, as per map recorded in book 29, pages 51 and 52, Miscellaneous records of said County, described as follows: Commencing at the northeast corner of lot one (1), thence south 57 degrees, west 77 chains to an angle in the northerly line of said lot marked "T7" on said map, thence southerly ten (10) chains measured along a direct line drawn from said angle marked "T7" to the northeast corner of lot twenty-six (26) as shown on said map, thence northerly seventy-four and eighty-four one hundredths (74.84) chains, more or less, to a point in the easterly line of lot one (1) distant south 11 degrees, 45' E. twenty (20) chains from the point of beginning, thence north 11 degrees 45' twenty (20) chains to the place of beginning, containing 60 acres, more or less.

PARCEL B.—Also lot ten (10), block four (4) in the village of Monte Vista, County of Los Angeles, State of California, as per map recorded in book 6, page 24 Miscellaneous records of said county.

Provided, however, that the foregoing reservations of Parcel A, is subject to all water rights and rights of way hereinbefore described, which water rights and rights of way are not reserved or excepted.

PUBLIC NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, That I will, on Monday, the 29th day of October, A. D. 1923, at 12 o'clock M, of that day, in front of Court House door of the County of Los Angeles, Broadway entrance, sell at public auction, for lawful money of the United States, all the right, title, claim and interest of said defendant Tujunga Water & Power Company, a corporation, of, in and to the above described property, or so much thereof as may be necessary to raise sufficient to satisfy said judgment, with interest and costs, etc., to the highest and best bidder.

Dated this 4th day of October, 1923.
WM. I. TRAEGER,
Sheriff of Los Angeles County.
By W. T. Osterholt, Deputy Sheriff.
James Donovan, Plaintiff's Attorney.

FINISH PRACTICE FOR CARD CLASH

Oxy Coach Sends Battlers Through Stiff Workout For Stanford Game

By LARRY RAYMOND
Written for The Evening News

Coach "Timberwolf" Pipal and his flock of assistants are putting the finishing touches on the Oxy Tiger football team this afternoon, with eagerness in their eyes concerning the outcome of the game with the heavyweights from Stanford tomorrow, Saturday, at 3 p. m., at the Los Angeles Coliseum. The Occidental varsity will meet the bulky Card team in one of the most important games for each team, as the outcome will definitely settle the prospects of the two teams in their conference games to follow.

Andy Kerr and his mighty warriors arrived in Los Angeles this morning. Twenty-six demon fighters made the trip. As the Cardinals make their first and only appearance in the southern part of the state tomorrow against the plucky Tigers, they will endeavor "to show off well," so to speak.

Secret Workout

Yesterday afternoon, Oxy held a strenuous workout on the stadium field under lock and key. No reporters, visitors, friends, or enemies, were allowed within telescope distance of the battlefield. Pipal has much which he expects to uncover in the game at hand, and his hat is overflowing with plays and tricks which it has not been necessary to display heretofore. Coach Rundquist is giving his linemen some all-American stuff these days, and it seems to be undergoing the absorption process. He played guard on the Illinois state eleven, and knows how to develop other good linemen like himself. Another coach on the Tiger staff is Nickolas, who played next to Rundquist on the Illinois team in the position of tackle. He is lending a helping hand to good advantage. Tuffy Conn, Ralph Deems, Fred Johnson, and "Pop" Kirkpatrick are working diligently to whip Oxy into the best of shape for the ensuing struggle.

Association Supports Plans To Beautify Grounds of Crescenta School

The local Parent-Teacher association met yesterday afternoon at the school auditorium with a rousing good attendance. The new members were in the majority, and were heartily greeted and made welcome by the older members.

The treasurer's report showed $163 in the treasury, and of the 25 cents per member paid by 300 members in the recent drive, only 5 cents per member will be kept in the treasury here, the other 20 cents going to the federation.

Mrs. Van Duezen, chairman of the program committee, will probably be able to secure a speaker for the next meeting to talk on "Delinquent Homes."

The egg drive was discussed and the new members were surprised to hear that in the past three years pupils have supplied 150 dozen eggs to the Macey street school, and will continue the drives through the coming school year. As the Parent-Teacher Federation club have their meeting on the third Thursday of the month, it was decided to discuss the question of changing the Parent-Teacher association meeting to another day of the month. This question will be more freely discussed and voted on in the November meeting.

Mrs. Angier, president, announced the opening of Miss Smith's classes in dramatic expression.

To Beautify Grounds

Mr. Blanford, the principal, spoke on beautifying the grounds of the Los Angeles Avenue school with shrubbery, etc. This question was discussed pro and con, with the result the members of the association voted to donate $10 to the seventh and eighth grades for shrubbery, which will add a great deal to the grounds. It is the desire of Mr. Blanford, not only to improve the grounds, but to encourage the children to take pride in them and keep them from trash.

Speaking on the school party to be given some time near the middle of November—the Parent-Teacher association decided the refreshments should be donated by all interested parents.

Mrs. Angier then presented Mrs. T. Archibald of South Pasadena as the speaker of the afternoon.

Mrs. Archibald, who is the chairman of the district department of parents' reading, gave a splendid talk on this subject, suggesting certain books for the parents to read in regard to training children.

On receipt of the full list of these books, Mary B. Darrow, librarian of the County Free library, will place as many of these books in the hands of the parents as it is possible to procure.

Mrs. Angier and Mrs. Murdock are working together to form a reading circle along these lines, Mrs. Murdock having been a member of the Parent-Teacher association reading circle in Glendale for some time.

At the close of Mrs. Archibald's fine talk, the meeting adjourned to have a social gathering around the refreshment tables. Mrs. Rasmussen and Mrs. Larsen played several selections during the social period. Several new members were cordially welcomed at the close of the afternoon's business.

Plan Mexico Trip

Mrs. J. W. Cline has just returned from a visit to San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Cline expect to leave for Mexico some time next month. On their arrival Mr. Cline will, no doubt, buy up acreage and subdivide as he has done here.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Arnold have been entertaining their son, Max Arnold of San Francisco, as their house guest this week. Mr. Arnold made his business headquarters at the new Biltmore, but will return north tomorrow. Mrs. A. Posson, Mr. Arnold's sister, will accompany him on his journey north and will stay a week or ten days in San Francisco and adjacent points.

Steel on the new extension of the Glendale & Montrose railroad is laid as far as Ranssdale avenue, almost half way to the Pennsylvania avenue terminus.

EAGLE ROCK

VISITING DAY IN CITY'S SCHOOLS

Teachers Inspect Work Done In Similar Grades to Aid Improvement

Today is Visiting Day in the Eagle Rock schools, in conformity with the state requirement, and each teacher is taking time off to visit a grade in another school similar to the one he or she is teaching.

"The purpose of these visits is observation," states C. W. Preston, superintendent of the Eagle Rock schools. "Each teacher must observe the work both of teachers and pupils, and on her return to her own school make a report of what she has learned, with suggestions for improvement of the system.

"This is another instance of the lead California takes in educational affairs."

Express Gratitude

The Eagle Rock fire department is deeply grateful to the residents of this community for the co-operation given in fighting the disastrous fires that raged in the foothills Saturday and Sunday, states Lieut. E. W. Welty.

"Not only were hundreds of men lent in fighting the flames," he states, "but many were the contributions of coffee, sandwiches and other first aids to the inner man.

"Working together as a unit, we succeeded in saving the city from a catastrophe such as recently befell Berkeley. That the wind proved an ally we admit. The fire proved beyond any argument the pressing need for more water. This need is now being met. Pipes and hydrants have been ordered and work of installation will shortly be under way. In some instances, hydrants have already gone in, under supervision of Captain Bryden, along Sumner avenue and Sierra Vista drive. The north slope, because of the greater menace, will be equipped first."

Local Notes

In the excitement incident to the fire Saturday, criminal elements as usual made ravages. A cash register found at the corner of Hill and Colorado Tuesday by S. L. McArthur of Pasadena proved to be the property of the Golden Seal service station, Pasadena. Two spare tires and a fire extinguisher were stolen during the excitement.

William M. Duncan, local Central avenue barber, has been fined $175 or seventy-five days for having liquor in his possession, following arrest by Federal Officer Schubert, Tuesday of this week. A gallon of liquor said to be intoxicating was confiscated in the raid. Duncan is also booked to answer a charge for speeding in Burbank, the hearing being set for Tuesday, October 23.

Robert Price of 2354 West Park avenue was struck by an automobile while riding his bicycle to school on Wednesday morning and seriously injured. Dr. Carl H. Phinney, who rendered immediate surgical attention, states that the injuries included a severe cut on one leg.

A card party was held at the Women's Twentieth Century clubhouse Monday night, with Mesdames A. S. Johnson, F. H. Lerchen and H. I. Cruzan as hostesses. Dahlias formed the principal decorations.

P.-T. A. Meets

The Dahlia Heights Parent-Teacher Association met at 3 o'clock this afternoon, at the school house, with Mrs. A. M. Douglas, representing the Goodwill Industry, as principal speaker.

Jennie Watson gave character dances, there was a cornet solo by Mrs. Little, accompanied by Mrs. Westmoreland, and Mrs. Loop, Section 13 councilor, made a brief talk.

Train Strikes Trolley Wires; Halts Traffic

Realization dawned sharply on Glendalians this morning that they are soon to have a trolley line along Glendale avenue, when, at 10:30 o'clock, a Salt Lake train, proceeding north with poles for the forthcoming electrification, struck the overhead cable of the Glendale-Montrose Railway company at the corner of Glendale avenue and East Broadway, delaying passengers on the Eagle Rock line a half hour.

Bystanders declare a blinding flash accompanied the crash, the smokestack of the locomotive making a contact that was an instant incandescent.

Captain W. A. Loving, of the Glendale police department, who visited the scene with Lieutenant W. J. Royle, reports there were no injuries.

Reckless Driving Is Charged by Officers

J. H. Baldwin, 1012 East Maple, was enjoying a nocturnal ride about 2 o'clock this morning, on Los Feliz road, near the Southern Pacific tracks.

Officers Claxton and Hedrick were in the vicinity. They objected to his manner of driving and took him and his car to the police station, where Baldwin was locked up on a charge of driving a car recklessly.

When arraigned before Police Judge F. H. Lowe this morning, Baldwin announced his intention to employ an attorney. Later he sent word to the judge that he would plead guilty. Judge Lowe will pass sentence late today after he has had an opportunity to interview the arresting officers.

Art Exhibition at Glendale High School

The art department of the Glendale Union High school has arranged with the Los Angeles Museum of History, Science and Art for their extension work, and as was the case last year, exhibitions will be placed in rooms 133 and 136. The following have been chosen:

Group 1: Oil paintings by Luvena B. Uysekal, Karl Yens, F. Carl Smith, Conrad Duff and pastel by Max Wieczorek.

Group 2: Pictorial landscapes and pictorial designs from University of California, Southern Branch.

Group 3: Eighteen water colors by Donna Schuster.

Group 4: Photographs of old masters.

Group 5: Japanese prints owned by Museum.

Group 6: Decorative and commercial designs, by pupils of the Otis Art institute.

Group 7: Forty greeting cards designed and executed by Vivian Stringfield.

Group 8: Group of water colors by Carl Yens, Edouard Oyskal, Bessie Hazen, Daisy Hughes and John Cotton.

Group 9: Twenty-five etchings and colored drawings by Loren X. Barton. Dates of arrival will be announced later. All are invited to come to the art department and avail themselves of this extension work.

I have one rule that never varies—every customer must be satisfied. Complaints don't reach me very often, but when they do I always make it right. The result of this policy is that my customers stick to me. I have lots of them, but like Little Oliver in Dickens, "I want some more."

If I make your winter suit or overcoat, or both, you will be satisfied; you will come again; you will tell others—they will tell their friends and so on.

If you've been paying more than I will charge for making your clothes of the finest quality of all pure wool fabrics in the market, you've been paying too much. If you are paying less, you are wearing clothes that are worth less.

Drop in and let my large selection of suitings and overcoatings tell their own story. I'll turn on the light and keep my mouth shut unless you want my assistance.

ZANTIPPE TELLS OF BOOTLEGGERS

Get-Together at Yosemite Featured by Fight, Reports Delegate

Professor Xavius Zantippe is back from the Yosemite valley, where he attended (purely from a scientific point of view) the fourth annual convention of the International Bootleggers' association.

Though suffering from pink-eye and with his nose in a sling, the professor condescended to issue a statement to The Glendale Evening News. It follows, unchanged except for minor corrections in spelling and grammar:

"I attended this convention as a delegate at large. That I am still at large I consider a miracle. (The learned professor evidently thought this was funny but we are frank to admit we fail to see the joke. Snow again, professor, we don't get your drift).

Overflow at Tahoe

"They had to hold the convention in the Yosemite because it was the only place big enough to hold the delegates. As it was, they had to accommodate the overflow at Lake Tahoe.

"There were some very picturesque figures present. One old bird (such language!) looked like Buffalo Bill, another like old man Tammany, of Tammany Hall.

"One of the most interesting features was a debate between John Barleycorn and John Drinkwater, with William Jennings Bryan as referee. Early in the first, Barleycorn tapped Drink-

Pioneer Harvested Crop Of Blackberries on Plot Of Non-Resident Neighbor

By OLD TIMER

"Yes, we have no blackberries. We have peaches."—A flutter of flags, a streaming of pennants, an Egyptian mosque, an English thatch-roofed inn, a Spanish hacienda, or a tent of the wandering nomads of Arabia's desert! What is all this excitement and bustle? Is there a perpetual circus in California?

No, it is only the opening of new subdivisions with all styles of architecture, calculated to attract attention, featured in the tract offices. The pennants mark the boundary lines. The streets are graded. The curbs are established. Salesmen wait with automobiles to take prospective buyers over the tract. Nothing that modern ingenuity can conceive has been omitted to make each particular subdivision more attractive than another.

A new subdivision every day! But Old Timer can recall when a new subdivision was an event in the annals of Glendale. Two of the early subdivisions were the Orange Grove tract and the Glenina tract.

Oranges and Peaches

The former included a twenty-acre orange grove and peach orchard which had been purchased in 1905 from the late E. T. Byram, one of Glendale's pioneers, by a Los Angeles syndicate and subsequently subdivided. Orange Grove tract lies between Harvard and Colorado, then Fifth and Sixth streets, on the east side of Glendale avenue, and is built up solidly now with few, if any, traces of the old groves.

The corners of the tract were ornamented with "monuments" of cement on which huge cement "oranges" reposed, much to the delight of the small boys, whose annual Hallowe'en prank was to dislodge these balls and send them rolling in the street.

It was the first tract in Glendale to have streets graded and cement walks and curbs put in by the subdividers.

The Glenina tract was a later subdivision and was located between Lomita and Eighth streets (now Maple), also on the east side of Glendale avenue. The Glenina subdivision was the ten-acre homestead of the late Mrs. Osina Love, another pioneer, and was put on the market without curbs and sidewalks, and the only way a purchaser could identify his particular lot was by counting the stakes from the corner. The tract was planted to peaches, plums and small fruits, including blackberries, and thereby hangs a tale.

Picked Wrong Fruit

The lot selected by a Glendale citizen had not been inspected by the feminine member of the household, and when a small boy presented himself at the kitchen door and offered to pick the blackberries on shares on the newly acquired lot in the Glenina tract the offer was accepted with alacrity and the bargain consummated. In due time the blackberries were picked and a most wonderful array of blackberries canned, blackberries jammed and blackberries jelled adorned the storeroom shelves.

But, to the consternation of the proud housewife, friend husband, on being shown the fruits of her labor, shouted in unseemly mirth, "But you have no blackberries on your lot. You have peaches."

Visions of the righteous wrath of the owner of the blackberry patch, of the confiscation of the jams and jellies appalled their "maker and preserver." But investigation showed that the owner of the blackberries was a non-resident and a mere speculator and the jam pots were safe. Later the peaches from the proper lot were harvested and both peaches and blackberries graced the family table many times the following winter.

Gland Lecture By Exponent in Glendale Promised

Dr. Woods Hutchinson, M. D., receives a thousand dollars, perhaps, for an article on glandular therapy in a popular magazine.

Chautauqua speakers garner several hundred dollars for talking on the subject. But they are mere novices, it seems.

Dr. Henry R. Harrower, active head of the laboratories here bearing his name, is a pioneer of the subject. At the Exchange and Rotary clubs this week he has promised to deliver a lecture on this interesting topic at the Tuesday Afternoon club at an early date.

Dante LaFranchi To Get Stylus Business

The business staff of the 1924 Stylus has at last been completed. Dante LaFranchi will be advertising manager, with William Shinner his assistant. Sherrill Osborne has been appointed assistant business manager. At a meeting held yesterday afternoon, it was decided to start getting out contracts for advertisements right away, to avoid the rush later.

City's Expenses Cut Into Reserve Fund

Deep inroads have already been made into the unappropriated funds of the city, the monthly report of Comptroller H. C. Saulsbury, shows. Since the first of the fiscal year, July 1, $3,440.26 has been used, with $14,520.82 set aside for the year, to take care of unexpected expenditures.

One may go from Helsinfors, Finland, to London or Paris, in regular connecting airplanes in 36 hours, whereas by steamer and train requires four or five days.

GLENDALE CHEST DRIVE DATE SET

Campaign Will Be Staged November 19-24, Is Committee Ruling

The drive for funds for the Glendale Welfare Chest will be held during the week of November 19 to 24, according to the agreement that was reached at the meeting of the organization held last night in the Chamber of Commerce auditorium under the presidency of W. E. Hewitt.

At that time, it was claimed, the Thanksgiving spirit will be strongly in evidence, and the appeals that will be made for aid for the charitable and welfare work of the city will meet a more generous response than might be given at other times, and another factor in the decision to set the date so soon after the organization of the Welfare Chest body, is that the members now are eager to get into action and put on a successful drive while the enthusiasm is hot.

Explains Objects

Mr. Hewitt again explained the objects for which the Glendale Welfare Chest has been instituted, stressing the fact that only one drive for charitable and welfare work will be staged during the year, the necessity for eliminating the duplication of effort in caring for the city's needs along these lines, and the economical operation of the work of collecting funds for the work, cutting the cost of raising the money required from the high figure it has shown in the past to about 3 per cent of the total collected.

The duties of the various committees were also determined during the discussion, the budget and endorsement committee being charged with the duty of passing on the beneficiaries who will apply for a share in the proceeds of the collections, the finance committee to handle the funds after they are collected, the campaign committee to direct and supervise the drive, and the publicity committee to educate the people of Glendale to the necessity and the advantages of concentrating all of their charitable and welfare efforts in one drive.

The budget committee will determine as soon as possible the amount that is to be called for, and as soon as this has been done the other committees will launch their share of the work.

Use Local Experts

A suggestion that experts on Community Chest work be asked to assist in the preliminary work of the drive by aiding in the organization of the campaign was opposed to Charles B. Guthrie and R. F. Kitterman on the ground that Glendale has many men and women who have already gained a vast amount of experience in organizing and carrying on drives of the nature planned, and it will be easy, it was asserted, to secure the benefit of the experience these men and women have at their disposal.

Mrs. Daniel Campbell requested that she be permitted to resign as chairman of the budget and endorsement committee, because of the press of other domestic and club duties, suggesting that Mrs. Wm. P. MacMullin, chairman of the civics committee of the Tuesday Afternoon club, be appointed in her place. The appointment of a successor to Mrs. Campbell will be taken up later.

U. S. to Issue Money Orders to Germany

Money order busineess between the United States and Germany, that was interrupted when the two countries went to war in 1917, will be resumed on November 1, according to advices received at the Glendale postoffice today.

Assistant Postmaster George Hallett states that it will be necessary for persons desiring to remit money to friends in Germany to fill out five different forms in making their remittance through the postoffices.

The orders will be issued in United States money and, on their arrival at the international exchange office in Cologne, they will be turned into German currency at the prevailing rate of exchange.

Illinoisans to Stage Annual Picnic, Oct. 27

All loyal Illinoisans of the Southland are invited to attend the picnic reunion on Saturday, October 27, at Sycamore Grove park, Los Angeles.

There will be county registers open all day, badges, buttons and coffee. Bring your own basket dinner or buy your dinner on the grounds.

A program consisting of music, addresses and community singing led by Henry J. Brubaker will be included in the jolly good time.

Miss Bertha Wheeler Transfers to Glendale

Miss Bertha Wheeler, stenographer in the plant department, Eighth and Santee streets office, Pacific Telephone and Telegraph office, Los Angeles, has been transferred to the Glendale office, where she took up her duties Wednesday morning, reports Manager Fred Deal. Miss Wheeler has for some time been a resident of Glendale, living with her parents at 1125 East Harvard street.

COUNCIL ORDERS FIRE PROTECTION

Sycamore Canyon; Verdugo Woodlands to Be Guarded Against Outbreaks

Immediate transfer of one fire truck to Sycamore canyon was ordered by the City Council, in session Thursday night, and steps were taken looking to the establishment of a permanent fire department at Verdugo Woodlands. Grave danger of new fires any day exists, according to those who discussed the matter, and the necessity for preparedness was emphasized by F. P. Newport, of the Newport company, and others. Mr. Newport declared that if the recent fire had been on the Glendale side of the hills considerable damage to the city could not have been avoided.

Mr. Newport offered the city the use of a portable building to house the fire crew in the canyon temporarily. When the mayor suggested that a permanent location ought to be considered, Mr. Newport stated that he felt sure a site in the business district of Verdugo Woodlands would be provided if the city would be willing to live up to the $5000 building restriction in this district. The city engineer was instructed to proceed at once to investigate the question of a permanent building.

Dangers From Wash

Probable dangers from Verdugo Wash were referred to by Mr. Newport, who suggested that an appropriation of three or four thousand dollars be provided for this, and for fire breaks in the hills. City Manager W. H. Reeves was instructed to confer with the county supervisors in an effort to secure part of the fund from the county.

Vehement protests against opening and broadening Graynold avenue were denied by a vote of three to two, after lengthy discussion.

A proposed ordinance requiring universal use of conduits for the installation of electric wiring precipitated a warm argument. Charges were made that the ordinance was backed by electricians and conduit dealers. It was finally voted to lay the ordinance on the table. It was charged that a former ordinance pertaining to electric wiring, which should have made but a very slight difference in the cost of wiring the average house, was used as an excuse to practically double prices.

Keep Up Gas Quality

Gasoline sold in Glendale in the future will have to be up to specified standard if a proposed ordinance, which the city attorney was instructed to prepare, goes through. The ordinance is to be modeled after the Los Angeles ordinance.

The city attorney was also instructed to prepare an ordinance providing for the operation of automobile camp grounds, one under which a high class camp only can be operated.

15 Glendale Men to Receive K. P. Rank

A total of fifteen candidates from Glendale will receive the rank of page in the Knights of Pythias order, local lodge, No. 331, at a monster gathering of Los Angeles county Knights in the Santa Monica beach auditorium, Monday night, October 29, reports E. S. Melzer, chancellor commander of the Glendale lodge.

At this time 1000 candidates will be taken in, making it one of the largest affairs of its kind in the history of the order, perhaps the largest ever held in the state of California.

Finds 'Missing' Wife Booked on 5 Charges

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 19.—After searching all night for his 18-year-old wife, Beulah Robar, who "disappeared" from their Cherry street home in Long Beach, John L. Robar yesterday found the missing girl in the county jail, where she faced five charges.

The charges against the pretty young woman were: Driving an automobile while intoxicated; driving in a reckless manner; driving without an operator's license; driving without a rear light, and causing a wreck.

The husband did not have enough money for his wife's bail and she was held in jail.

U. S. Government Backs Wood's Administration

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—The United States government stands squarely behind Governor-General Leonard Wood in his administration of the Philippines, it was announced officially by Secretary of War Weeks. The secretary at the same time made public a communication sent to Wood upholding his record and declaring he had not "misused the powers of the governor-general."

"You are entitled to the support of the administration and you have it," the secretary wrote General Wood.

After falling four floors into his back yard the other day an Alabama man was uninjured. Investigation by specialists revealed that he was wearing a light fall suit.

U. S. Shoes Circle Globe

IN a letter last week from W. B. Kirk, now touring Europe, readers of the Glendale Evening News learned that American shoes are sold principally in the style shops. Mr. Kirk's observations are borne out by a survey made by the Bureau of Domestic and Foreign Commerce at Washington.

According to this survey Uncle Sam is making a thorough study of the feet of the world. He is finding out which nations have long, narrow feet, which have short, broad feet, which have thick feet and which have thin.

The Footprints of Father Time

Incidentally he is learning things about the foot customs of the globe that throw a bright light on the habits of the ancient Assyrians and Egyptians and which make the characters of Babylonian dancers and Roman Emperors seem familiar ones.

Through the Bureau of Domestic and Foreign Commerce, linking the activities of consuls in all quarters of the world, he is finding out social tendencies and pedestrian requirements purely for the benefit of American manufacturers of shoe leather.

The Shoe and Leather Manufactures Division of the Bureau is in charge of the survey, which has been under way for some time and which will be concluded in the near future. It has numerous reports from consults in the various districts of Germany, France, Italy, Greece, Mexico, Jamaica, Peru, Bolivia, Holland, Brazil, Venezuela and other countries. They give very definite facts for the guidance of American manufacturers in conquering world trade. They also hold a great deal of romance and historical charm for those who care to study them analytically.

The manufacturer is delighted because they show beyond argument that American styles and the American-built shoe are in the ascendancy in every corner of the globe.

Invading Europe

They are invading Europe. Since the war, Uncle Sam has learned, the German shoe has changed from the long, square appearance that formerly distinguished it and the Germans are making and wearing the pointed toe and long "vamp" that distinguish the American one.

U. S. Shoes Scorn Secret Treaties

The French, who lean toward short shoes with high heels, brief vamps and rounded toes, still cling fondly to this style; but the American contour is making big inroads even here, according to the reports of consuls.

Leather Most Used

The only American departure that is not being taken up to any extent is that of the substitution of other materials for leather. The majority of the world has always trod on leather and apparently is determined to continue doing so.

In some of the older sections of Europe wooden clogs, often with leather uppers and leather innersoles, are used. In the backward sections of South America sandals of rope are used when the people do not go entirely barefoot. Some French housewives use felt san-

ERECT TENT FOR SCIOTS' CIRCUS

Band and Sciot Charities to Divide Receipts of Five Day Show

The big top for the Sciots circus, that is to be staged by the Glendale Pyramid, No. 39, from October 23 to 27, inclusive, is being erected today on the lot on the west side of Brand boulevard between Milford and Doran streets. The tent covers a space 250 feet long and eighty feet wide, and will be crammed with high class attractions from one end to the other, according to the announcement of H. M. Bennett, Toparch of the Pyramid.

The Carl Horney circus, which has just concluded an engagement with the San Francisco Sciots Pyramid, which resulted in the lodge treasury being increased to the tune of over $60,000, has been secured for the occasion, and the entire receipts from the five-day entertainment will go to the Sciots Pyramid, less the actual cost of the circus, which comes here under a definite contract that provides for the payment of a flat sum to the circus owners, instead of any percentage basis of division.

Sciots in Control

No concessions of any kind will be rented, the Sciots managing the entire affair, assuming all responsibility and taking the proceeds. The first object of the organization is to purchase new uniforms for the Sciots band in preparation for their attendance at the annual convention in San Diego next month, and the incidental expenses of the band, and after that all the money derived from the circus will be devoted to Sciot charities, which Mr. Bennett declares, cover a wide field and are not restricted to welfare objects that are peculiarly those of the Masonic order.

The south half of the tent will be used to stage the midway, and the circus will be in the north half. Over 25,000 tickets have already been sold, and the 10-cent admission will cover everything but the reserved seats.

Mother and Daughter Hurt in Auto Crash

Mrs. Frank F. Newhouse, 1138 North Louise street, was painfully bruised about the right arm and side and her small daughter was slightly injured at 6 o'clock Thursday evening when their car, driven by Mr. Newhouse, struck the pole of a milk wagon driven by J. R. Strode.

The accident occurred at Hawthorne street and Central avenue. Newhouse reported to the police that the wagon had no lights whatever.

In addition to the injuries to the occupants, the car was considerably scarred by the wagon pole.

FOLDING LADDER

For the use of firemen a ladder has been invented that can be folded to resemble a pole for carrying through windows or to serve as a battering ram.

GRAMMAR SCHOOL TO BE DEDICATED

J. S. McGroarty to Be Chief Speaker at Ceremonies On October 20

Official dedication of the new Tujunga grammar school will be celebrated Saturday, October 20, at 3 o'clock, when the cornerstone will be laid. John Steven McGroarty, without whom no ceremony of importance in the Verdugo hills is complete, will be the chief speaker. Speeches will be made by others, including Wallace M. Morgan, representing the board of trustees. School children will also take part in the exercises.

A program befitting the importance which this occasion merits, has been arranged, to be announced later. The new school building is the first public building of a permanent character to be erected in Tujunga and marks an important milestone in the progress of the ten-year-old town. This will be the first formal corner-stone laying.

Twenty Class Rooms

The building which the ceremony will dedicate is of reinforced concrete, mission style. When completed, according to the plans, it will include twenty class rooms and an auditorium with a seating capacity of 1200.

The building to be dedicated Saturday is the second unit of the school, one unit having been completed and already in use. These two units represent about a quarter of the entire plant called for in the plans. The remaining units will be erected as soon as possible.

The corner of Pine and El Centro streets, where the school is located, is one of the most desirable in Tujunga. It is located on high ground that commands a view of nearly the entire valley.

The trustees invite the public to inspect their new educational plant.

M. V. Hartranft of the California Home Extension company was the representative of the Tujunga Valley Realty board at the recent state realtors' convention at Sacramento.

At the last meeting correspondence between the secretary and the Tujunga Chamber of Commerce relative to opening of Thousand Oaks drive and proper designation of same on maps was read. The realty board has invited the chamber to present the matter in detail for further consideration.

Legion Celebration

Halloween will be celebrated by the American Legion, Post 250, and the Auxiliary with an old-time overall-gingham apron party at Legion hall, corner of Sunset boulevard and El Centro streets, Wednesday, October 31.

White collars and starched bosoms and decollete gowns will be heavily taxed, according to the announcement of the entertainment committee.

The program will include dancing and the customary Halloween refreshments — doughnuts, cider, pumpkin pie, etc. The "etc." is inserted to add a little mystery and incentive to attend.

Work has been begun on the new grocery store building at Walnut drive and Michigan avenue that is being erected for A. E. Perry, Pasadena grocer, by W. F. Hartman. The building will be of concrete construction, 40 by 60 feet, with stucco finish.

R. J. Smith, building contractor, has moved his office from the bank building to Michigan avenue and Palm. An additional room will be added and complete facilities installed for furnishing plans to builders. Mr. Smith also intends to improve the grounds about the building to make an attractive appearance.

A five-room, all-modern house has been contracted for by Smith for B. A. Hess of Chicago, Ill. It will be built at Grand View and Del Mar streets.

Mr. Smith has just finished tile and fireplace work on private apartments for Frank Miller, proprietor of the Mission Inn at Riverside. The apartments are on the roof of the famous hostelry and are for Mr. Miller's own use.

Opens Art Classes

Miss Juanita Causey, recently of Chicago, is establishing drawing and painting classes at the Fine Arts Guild studio on Michigan avenue at Hillhaven road.

Floor space in the Midget stand at Walnut and Michigan is being doubled by the new proprietor, Mrs. Perkiser.

Constable Edward McCarty has sold his property at 132 North San Ysidro street to John Watson. The McCarty family is now residing at 310 Colby drive.

Other recent changes include the sale of property at 353 South Haines Canyon road to Mrs. S. Samuelson; the Nettleton property at 358 North San Ysidro street to Mr. Coffman. Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Jones have taken the property at 244 Frohock court.

It is stated that the board of trustees of the Glendale Union High school will not take action in the matter of securing transportation for Tujunga and Sunland high school pupils attending at Glendale.

Parents recently showed a preference to privately operated cars over the bus advocated by some. This choice influenced the board in its decision. There are about seventy-five pupils attending Glendale High school from Tujunga and Sunland.

COMMENT That's All

Evening News Building
Need More Industries
The Martian Eyesight
Some Editorial Humor

By Gil A. Cowan

Today we have something to talk about. In other columns announcement is made by A. T. Cowan, proprietor and publisher of The Glendale Evening News, that a great program of building development for housing a greater plant is under way.

Indeed, the future for The Glendale Evening News, like the prospects of this city, is bright. There is no danger of The Glendale Evening News discontinuing publication, like certain papers have done in Southern California. For The Glendale Evening News is a local institution, a part and parcel of Glendale itself.

Practically a new building is necessary to house this thriving local industry—and that is what this newspaper really is. It will be two stories, front and rear, devoted to the publishing business. It will include all of the modern printing devices, when complete, it is possible to assemble.

Most of all, it means an expenditure in the next year of upwards of $100,000 in capital investments, which will make it pre-eminently "the leading newspaper of the San Fernando valley."

In fact, The Glendale Evening News today does more business, has a larger investment and has a larger payroll than any industrial plant in the city of Glendale, with the exception of the Harrower laboratory and the Los Angeles basket factory, it is reported

The foregoing comparison calls attention to the fact that some of Glendale's best industries are really not in Glendale. For instance, the Tropico potteries lies over the line in Los Angeles, and the Moreland truck plant is in county territory between here and Burbank.

Yet the employes of these concerns live here and contribute a great deal to the prosperity of Glendale. Would that we had a hundred such plants to form a foundation for a firm economic future.

There is plenty of room along the Southern Pacific main line here. Let us go out and get more factories that want to locate here.

The Santa Ana Register prints an editorial from some source or another that serves as food for thought. It is entitled "The Martian Eyesight," and says:

Dr. A. M. Low, a noted English scientist and inventor, says that if there is any method of communicating with Mars which might prove successful, it is light signalling. He suggests a "light screen" produced at high altitudes by airplanes, in order to avoid disturbances from clouds and air currents, and give our interplanetary brethren a clear view.

Yet he is doubtful about even that method. Granting that there are intelligent beings on Mars, "How are we to know," he asks, "that they see by light? They might see by means of heat waves. You can take quite good photographs in a pitch-dark room, using heat only. Or they might see in some other way.

"Just suppose we were born with eyes having only slightly different lenses from the normal. We should see that the air around us was full of life and that our water bath was a mass of horrible creatures. Quite a small difference in our physical make-up would revolutionize our world and our ideas of living."

It is probably sheer egotism that makes us consider ourselves perfect models for the universe and fancy that sentient creatures in other worlds would necessarily have faculties and organs like ours. Observation of animal life here should teach man to know better. Who can imagine the mental outlook of a bird, an elephant, a bee or a spider? The whole subject is one that promotes tolerance, open-mindedness and humility.

Up-state editors have a sense of humor, as evidence these lines of sunshine:

Smoking is an indulgence of reflective persons, and women hardly come under that classification.—Sacramento Union.

When a motor knocks all the time, there is something the matter with it. And it is the same with a man.—Oroville Register.

If the jazz bands are going out, about all the drummer can take up to employ his versatility is short-order cooking.—Lassen Mail.

Infatuation of Schick's Wife for Clark Told

SAN DIEGO, Oct. 19.—The struggle of George E. Schick, wealthy realty and investment broker who mysteriously disappeared early in February, to break the infatuation of his wife for E. Drew Clark, his carrying of a revolver and a threat made immediately before his disappearance, that "I may commit a murder if I find Clark in my house when I get back," was today told exclusively to the International News Service by Grace Lucille Mason, Mexicali cabaret entertainer and star witness before the grand jury which is probing the Schick case here. She was to appear before the jury later today.

Debt Commission Will Dun European Nations

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—Admittedly somewhat perturbed over the manner in which certain European nations are calmly and completely ignoring their financial indebtedness to the United States—now totalling some $7,000,000,000—the American Debt Funding Commission probably will dispatch in the very near future another communication to these debtor nations, reminding them that the American government is still waiting, ready and anxious to listen to settlement propositions.

In the language of diplomacy, this projected communication is referred to as a note. In ordinary American business parlance, it is termed a "dun."

BURBANK

P.-T. A. ENTERTAINS SCHOOL FACULTY

Churches Join in Tendering Welcome to Members of Teaching Staff

Last night's informal reception to the teachers of the city, held in the study hall of the Burbank High school under the auspices of the P.-T. A. and churches, proved to be a highly successful affair both from viewpoint of attendance and enthusiasm.

Many new residents of Burbank as well as familiar faces were identified in the throng that crowded the hall. Teachers met parents and the interchange of ideas proved most stimulating.

Following the reception, a brief program was given, after which refreshments were served. Presbyterian, Episcopal, Methodist, Baptist and Christian churches combined with the Parent-Teacher association to make the affair the success it was.

Three women were largely responsible for the pleasant evening everyone enjoyed: Mrs. C. M. Knox, chairman of the reception committee; Mrs. G. Roy Pendall, in charge of the program; and Mrs. G. W. Siveter, managress of refreshments.

C. of C. Directors Meet

Last night the board of directors of the Burbank Chamber of Commerce held their regular monthly meeting in the C. of C. rooms. It was an open meeting for members of the organization and many availed themselves of the opportunity to convene with the directors and hear some of the many plans for Burbank's advancement.

T. B. Anderson is reported to have closed a deal for the purchase of the market building formerly owned by Messrs. Spazier, Church, Young and Boorse. The building, located at 357 East San Fernando road, has for the past two years been Mr. Anderson's business headquarters, as proprietor of the meat department of the City Market.

The Altar society of the Holy Trinity church held a card party Tuesday night, October 16, in the Women's clubhouse, at which the men and women of the church were present in large numbers. Refreshments were served.

Burbank Has Artists

In addition to uncovering Burbank as a rapidly developing city of homes and a fast growing industrial district, the recent Fall Festival showed this city to have some artists of prominence.

The water-color work of Mrs. Eva De Weese Streuber, a High school teacher, commanded much attention, as did several pictures in oil, by Mrs. Grace Lovejoy. Mrs. Margaret Yale also had some fine water-colors on exhibit, and Mrs. Winchester exhibited a clever pen-and-ink sketch and an oil painting of the Oregon coast.

The outstanding picture of the exhibit was Mrs. Streuber's water-color of ocean waves just as they rise in a billow before breaking. The colors were green and gold, tastefully set off in a frame of greenish blue.

LAY CORNERSTONE OF NEW SCHOOL

John Stephen M'Groarty On Program to Be Held Saturday Afternoon

By F. A. GRAHAM
Of The Evening News Staff

Civic organizations, women's clubs and the Tujunga Community church will join in the ceremony of laying the cornerstone for Tujunga's new $48,000 grammar school tomorrow, Saturday, October 20, at 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

There will be an invocation by Rev. J. U. Stotts of the Community church. The balance of the program will include an address by John Steven McGroarty, short talks by Judge H. H. Breidt, president of the Tujunga Chamber of Commerce; Mrs. Neison E. Jones, president Tujunga Women's club; Mrs. H. B. Lynch, president Tujunga Parent-Teacher association; Charles H. Kellar, commander Post 250, American Legion, and representatives of the La Crescenta and Sunland schools. Wallace M. Morgan of the Tujunga board of trustees will also speak.

Papers Preserved

Copies of The Glendale Evening News and other daily and weekly papers circulated in the district, together with the names of teachers, officials of different civic organizations, an American flag, copy of the school law, and other documents usually placed in cornerstonees, will be deposited in a galvanized iron box in one of the columns at the entrance to the auditorium.

A bronze tablet will be embedded in the column wall in lieu of a stone. This tablet will bear the name of the school and the year of erection.

GETS GAVEL MADE OF PARENT NAVEL ORANGE TREE

Head Of California Fruit Growers' Exchange Receives Keepsake

Sole surviving parent navel orange tree at Riverside and Mrs. Eliza C. Tibbets, who planted and nurtured the two trees from Brazil that resulted in California's present enormous citrus crop.

Sentiment intermingled with history and business in Los Angeles the other day when C. C. Teague, president of the California Fruit Growers' Exchange, was presented with a gavel at the regular meeting of the board of directors. While not an expensive gift, the few ounces of wood is all that remains of one of the parent navel orange trees planted in Riverside fifty years ago by Mrs. Eliza C. Tibbets. These two trees were the beginning of the famous variety of oranges exclusive to California and which bring to the 11,000 growers in the association from $40,000,000 to $60,000,000 annually.

In the presentation talk made by A. D. Shamel of the United States citrus experiment station at Riverside he recalled the humble beginning of the industry, traced it through the varying stages until today, when the annual output of citrus fruits from California approximates 60,000 carloads of 400 boxes each, gathered from nearly 25,000,000 trees.

water's claret. Inhaling the fumes of that once unpopular beverage went to the White Ribbon Hope's head. He mistook the referee for his sparring partner and led wildly with a savage right. Bryan went down and took the count.

Both Rush the Can

"After that it was Marquis of Minnesota rules and catch as catch can. At the end of the third round John Barleycorn was drinking water and John Drinkwater was drinking barleycorn.

"The fourth opened with both contestants groggy. Early in the round Barleycorn hooked an uppercut to Drinkwater's aquarium, and he went down on high—but not before he handed Barleycorn a cloudburst over the left eye. Both took the full count, making the bout a draw.

"Another interesting feature of the convention was a series of talks by experts on 'Making Home Brew.' It proved most enlightening, many of the most troublesome problems being steamed out.

Charges Exaggeration

"The keynote of the convention was struck by Dr. Malted Milk, in a ringing address, 'Beer, Before Babylon—And After,' in which it was stated in no uncertain terms that the rumor to the effect that bootlegging was on the decline was greatly exaggerated.

"The convention closed with the election of a national past president, Haig and Haig running such a close race that it was decided to split the office and double the remuneration."

This statement has been read and okehed by Professor Zantippe and he accepts full responsibility for the same, realizing that it may mean his social ruin.

"I attended this convention in the interests of science," he states, "and I am frank to admit that I absorbed a great deal of valuable data."

60 Prisoners Freed From Irish Prison

DUBLIN, Oct. 19.—Sixty republican prisoners were released from Mountjoy prison today by Free State officials.

A crowd of women and girls gathered throughout the day outside the prison where, republicans claim, more than 400 Sinn Fein prisoners are hunger-striking. They sang hymns and prayed.

Free State government officials intimate that the hunger strikes are ineffective because the prisoners are secretly receiving food from the outside.

Republicans are appealing to prisoners in all Irish jails to hunger strike.

dals in the house. These customs are still firmly entrenched, just as firmly as the use of leather for the majority of purposes.

Shoes Classed With "Valuables"

This is further exemplified by a custom of Jamaica, where shoes are considered by the natives to be a considerable luxury. It is not uncommon on that island to see natives on their way to church or to a social gathering carrying their shoes in their hands. When they arrive at their destination they ceremoniously put them on and enter into the business of the occasion.

Brazil brings a parallel to Biblical times and to those of the Roman Empire. Brightly colored shoes, such as these mentioned in Exodus of "ram's hide dyed red," are dear to the Brazilian heart. And Brazilian damsels follow the custom of Julius Caesar, descendant of the Albanian Kings, who was entitled to wear red shoes seven days a week.

At Shrine of The Red Shoe

Fashion in design and color is an important factor in every country. The variety of native habits revealed proves the merit of American shoes in being able to make inroads against them.

Our Beautiful Feet

It is likely that as a result of Uncle Sam's present study the beauty of the world's feet will be improved. From various places, in South America particularly, come reports of a short, broad, thick foot that is far from the standards of beauty he believes in. It is probably due to the style of shoes that have been used. That the American foot seems more beautiful even to the possessor of the aforesaid stubby feet, seems proved by the universal liking the peoples of the earth are showing, both by purchase and imitation, for the American way of shaping shoe leather.

Bay City Post Wins Legion Band Award

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 19.—Announcement has been made by the contest committee that Dan Irwin post, San Francisco, won this year's prize of $1,000 for the best legion band at the American Legion convention. Monahan post, Sioux City, Iowa, winner of the prize last year at New Orleans, was named as second. Seven bands competed.

'CASEY' OFFICERS TAKE UP DUTIES

Installation Ceremony Held Under Direction Of Peter L. Ferry

Installation ceremonies honoring elected officers of the Glendale council, Knights of Columbus, were conducted last night at the council house at 330 East Lomita avenue by District Deputy Peter L. Ferry, assisted by H. V. Henry, district warden.

Jesse E. Smith, president of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce, was installed as grand knight; Fred Huesman, financial secretary; Edward Brehme, chancellor; Patrick Mulcahey, warden; T. J. Keleher, advocate; R. F. Doll, treasurer; James O'Neill Farrell, inside guard; Francis Wallace, outside guard; Joseph Psenner, outside guard; Leo McMahon, trustee; Fred Albright, recorder.

The council room was beautifully decorated for the affair by artistic arrangements of wonderful dahlias, sent by Hugh Bryan of the dahlia gardens in Verdugo Woodlands.

The orator of the evening was Frank Jeanl, Los Angeles attorney and eloquent speaker, who addressed the Knights on "The Constitution of Americanism." Other speakers were Rev. Michael Galvin, chaplain, who spoke on the subject of "Duties of Knighthood"; Grand Knight Eckenrode of Pasadena.

There were large delegations present from Pasadena, and from Council No. 621 of Los Angeles. Jesse Smith and Fred Huesman were former members of the Los Angeles council and their fellow members came to Glendale to join in the honors paid them.

Eleven Executives Turn Coolidge Down

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—Eleven governors have declined the invitation of President Coolidge to attend a gubernatorial conference at the White House Saturday, it was announced yesterday. Thirty-three governors accepted the invitation, two will send proxies and two failed to reply.

Those declining were: Governors Hunt, Arizona; McRae, Arkansas; Richardson, California; Moore, Idaho; Morrow, Kentucky; Small, Illinois; Davis, Kansas; Russell, Mississippi; Hyde, Missouri; Hinkle, New Mexico, and Blaine, Wisconsin.

DR. HARROWER IS ROTARY SPEAKER

Disagrees With Lloyd George on Europe's Economic Conditions

"It is admitted that France has upset the English trade apple cart in Europe by seizing the Ruhr," Dr. Henry R. Harrower told the Glendale Rotary club here yesterday afternoon, "but I feel that Germany never would have come across unless the French had settled the reparations problem for itself in the present way.

"True, Germany has had to go down to the depths of despair, yet France is not to be blamed because the business men set out to sell fake marks for real money. Eventually Germany will get on its feet again. Not until, however, they get some ordinary people to run things.

"I cannot agree with Lloyd George in his Chicago talk last night, and, while he has been premier of England, I cannot help but feel that he has some things to learn about Germany," said the doctor, who spent several months in that nation which today is seething in revolt.

Illustration after illustration of conditions, morale and economic conditions were cited by Dr. Harrower, one in particular being both personal and humorous.

Get Rake-Off

Presenting a letter of credit to the Deutche bank in Berlin, the largest institution of its kind, perhaps, he was informed that to get $1500, he would have to pay 4 per cent discount.

"I want to see the manager. the president of this bank, the whole board of directors before I pay that premium," he told the teller. And he was ushered into the manager's office.

"Haven't you got $1500 in American money," demanded the doctor.

"Yes, yes; but you see, it is so

AW, JACK, HAVE A HEART, YOU'RE TOO SOON IN THE EAST!

THRILL IN HAIR BOBBING STILL!

Observations of Glendale Girl As Locks Fall to Floor Are Reported

These were the observations of a Glendale girl Thursday; can you guess what was going on?

"Oh, if my mother knew about this she would kill me!"

"Do you think that is parted in about the right place?"

"Oh, what would mother say?"

"Do you think it will stop it from falling out? I would not think of doing this, but it is all falling out anyway."

"I don't like to do it, but it will make it a lot easier to wash."

During the while a wealth of beautiful hair was being arranged by the barber.

The tense moment arrives. She is very calm, she thinks, but no one else agrees with her. The sickening, crunching sound of the scissors is heard. She turns deathly pale. She tries to smile. That is a terrible failure.

Finally she regains her composure. She realizes the step has been taken and that she must go on. And when she starts talking again she renews her excuses and apologies.

All of which goes to show that while bobbed hair has become quite an institution there remains a few thrills in it for the uninitiated in Glendale.

Dutch Do Not Boost Enough to Satisfy Curiosity of Kirk

That the peoples of Europe are not versed in the American art of "boosting" is voiced in today's travel letter from W. B. Kirk, who writes from The Hague, Holland. In illustration of this opinion Mr. Kirk begins his letter with an account of his visit in The Hague. He writes:

W. B. KIRK

"The peoples in Europe don't know such a word as 'boost' and apparently are not looking for new settlers. To illustrate, I asked several about The Hague what was to be seen in it, etc., and even people who live here said there wasn't very much to see, the Peace Palace, of course, and the seashore. But we find it an interesting city.

"The appearance of the stores; the obvious cleanliness of the streets, meatshops, bakeshops, fruit, milk-cans (made of brass); their buildings, both business and residence, seeming to be newer and fresher than those in other cities we have seen; their street cars of better models, such are our impressions. The appearance of the people is little different from that in any other city. The expected round-faced, fat 'sawed-off and hammered-down' type of Dutchman which we picture in our imagination is the exception.

"We were warned to look out for prices in Holland, because it and Switzerland are about the only two countries whose money is worth par today. Their standard of money is the gulden or florin, worth 40 cents. Prices are higher than in France and Bel-

VESPERS VISITING IN ALGONA, IOWA

Local Capitalist Returns to Old Home After Making Fortune Here

Glendale's reputation of "the fastest growing city in America" has been taken to Algona, Ia., by Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Vesper of 321 East Lomita avenue.

In recording the arrival of the Vespers early this month, an Algona paper says:

"Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Vesper of Glendale, California, arrived in Algona last Wednesday, and have since been guests at the Fred Wehler home, while visiting with their many old friends here. Mr. Vesper was the first cashier of the County Savings bank in Algona, and left here seventeen years ago, locating at Glendale, which is a suburb of Los Angeles. He purchased the Bank of Glendale, a small institution at that time, which he built up.

"A few years ago Mr. Vesper sold out his banking interests to the Pacific Southwest Trust & Savings bank, and is now taking life more easy, having acquired a fortune through his banking and real estate business. He and Mrs. Vesper are looking fine and their many old friends here have given them a warm welcome. They have been visiting relatives in New York and Wisconsin, and are on the way back to their California home.

TODAY—Dominion Premiers Much Feted; British Diplomacy Challenged.

By F. A. WRAY
For International News Service

LONDON, Oct. 19.—One department of the British administration that always functions perfectly and never makes a mistake is that known as the "Government Hospitality Fund." Its resources are unlimited, and it aims at—and always gets—the best.

The recipients—or, perhaps, one ought to say the victims—of its friendliness are the colonial premiers at the present time. It is to be hoped that everyone of these ministers is able to digest even wrought iron. Because for two months they will be forcibly fed by a merciless organization. Breakfasts, luncheons, teas, dinners, suppers—from none of these will the unfortunate premiers have a single respite.

Not merely will they be surfeited with food, but they will be provided with one continuous feast of oratory. Whether the host be King George, Premier Baldwin, the Duke of Devonshire, or Marquis Curzon, each banquet will be accompanied by its proper allowance of speeches. If, at the end of two months, the dominions do not entirely grasp the British viewpoint—then it will be their own fault.

It must not be imagined that all these preparations and functions are altogether fortuitous or accidental. There are real reasons for impressing on colonial premiers the exact and literal British viewpoint. And, naturally, the chief of these is that, in diplomatic phrase, "there should be complete accord" between British ideas and those of the dominions toward world politics.

Young communities have a habit of thinking for themselves. And Downing street has been made fully aware during the last few months that Canada, Australia and South Africa have not been entirely pleased with Britain's handling of European politics—nor with its attitude toward the rum-running controversy with the United States. At the present conference the dominions wish for not merely a say, but an actual hand, in the settlement of these matters.

British diplomacy, in its tortuous way, has altered little in the last 200 years. But it will now be faced by new ideas, expounded by types of brain uncommon in Britain. General Smuts of South Africa, Premier Stanley Bruce of Australia, Mackenzie King of Canada, William Robertson Warren of Newfoundland—all young men, faced with impetuous labor parties—have no use for the strutting or pomposities of Marquis Curzon. Their countries clamor for results and business done, and on these they will insist.

The Ruhr deadlock affected dominion trade and industry as much as those of Britain, and the idea that young, vigorous and keen-witted men like these premiers will sit still and acquiesce in the British policy of standing by and saying nothing is, to say the least, unlikely. They are likely to point out, with some emphasis, that the British dominions made sacrifices in the war, as well as France.

Many internal changes are likely within the British political system within the next few months. No party, not even the tory or the labor party, is in a very united state, and new groupings are possible at any moment.

The latest possibility is that Winston Churchill, unable to keep out of the limelight for long together, is likely to attempt the formation of a new center party. Invigorated by a long rest and the financial succes of his war books, this brilliant Anglo-American contemplates the merging of the moderate sections of the tory, liberal and labor parties, which is expected to meet with considerable support throughout Britain and likely to become a weighty factor in English politics.

Hostility to present foreign policy and moderate social reform, combined with drastic pruning of governmental expenditure, would be the chief planks of the platform.

Uncle Wiggily Bedtime Stories

— By Howard R. Garis —

UNCLE WIGGILY'S GOLF BALL

"Where is Uncle Wiggily?" asked Mrs. Stubtail, the lady bear, one day, as she called at the hollow stump bungalow of the rabbit gentleman.

"Oh, Uncle Wiggily has gone off with a bag on his shoulder," answered Nurse Jane Fuzzy Wuzzy.

"Do you mean he has taken a bag to bring you back some carrots for supper " asked the lady bear.

"Nothing like that!" laughed the muskrat lady housekeeper. "Though I don't mean Uncle Wiggily wouldn't get me a bag full of carrots if I needed them. But he has taken a different sort of a bag this time."

"What kind?" asked Mrs. Stubtail, who was very curious.

"A golf bag full of wooden and iron clubs," said Nurse Jane, "and round hard white rubber golf balls, also, Uncle Wiggily has gone to play golf with Uncle Butter, the goat."

"Golf is a great game!" sighed Mrs. Stubtail. "Stubby is always at me to take it up—he says I'm getting too fat. But I tell him with winter coming on, when we take our long sleep, we bears must be fat."

"Of course," agreed Nurse Jane. "I wouldn't exactly say that Uncle Wiggily was fat—still, he does like to play golf."

And Uncle Wiggily, hopping along and carrying his golf bag with the sticks and balls, twinkled his pink nose.

"It is going to be a fine day for golf," thought the bunny rabbit gentleman to himself.

Just then he heard a voice behind him calling:

"Oh, Uncle Wiggily! Oh, Uncle Wiggily! Wait a minute!"

"Ha! If that's the Fuzzy Fox or the Woozie Wolf, and they think I'm going to wait for them, even a half a minute, it's a big mistake!" said the bunny, as he twinkled his pink nose very fast. He was going to run away when, coming around the corner of the mulberry bush, he saw Neddie and Beckie Stubtail, the children bears.

"Ha! I needn't be afraid now," thought Mr. Longears. "What is it you want, Neddie and Beckie?" he asked.

"Will you please bring us some jaw-breakers when you come back from playing golf?" asked Neddie.

"Jaw-breakers? What in the world are they?" asked the bunny.

"Oh, they're round, hard balls of candy, colored red and white," answered Becky. "We call them jaw-breakers 'cause you'll break your jaw if you try to chew them, but if you let them stay in your mouth until they melt—why that's all right!"

"Ha! Ha!" laughed Uncle Wiggily. "Yes, I'll bring you some jaw-breakers after I play golf, my little bear cubs!"

So Uncle Wiggily hopped along to the golf field to play with Uncle Butter, but on the way he stopped in a candy store and bought two round candy balls of candy—the jaw-breakers for Neddie and Beckie. Uncle Wiggily put the hard candies in his bag with the golf balls and hopped on.

"Now for a good game!" said the goat gentleman a little later as he and Uncle Wiggily began to play, knocking the hard, round white rubber balls all about the field and then chasing after the poor balls to knock them some more.

It's a good thing golf balls have no feelings; isn't it? If they did, —oh, the stories they could tell! My! My!

Well, Uncle Wiggily and Uncle Butter had not been playing very long before, into the golf field, came the Bob Cat. He had been following Uncle Wiggily all morning, though the bunny gentleman didn't know that.

Pretty soon Uncle Wiggily knocked his ball one way, and Uncle Butter knocked his ball the other way, far distant from each other.

"Now is my chance to catch that rabbit!" thought the Bob Cat. "Uncle Butter isn't with him, as they separated to look for their balls. I wouldn't dare nibble Wiggily's ears while the goat was with him, for Uncle Butter would hit me with his horns."

So the Bob Cat slipped along after the bunny rabbit, and soon caught up to him in a lonesome place.

"Ah, ha!" Now I have you!" howled the Bob Cat. "I'm going to nibble your ears, Uncle Wiggily! But before I do that, I want you to give me the candy balls you have in your bag. Don't tell me you have no candy balls, for I know better! I saw you go in the candy store to buy them."

"Yes, I have some candy balls for Neddie and Beckie," said the bunny. "Take them if you must!" Uncle Wiggily reached in his golf bag, but instead of taking out a candy jaw-breaker he took out a new, white golf ball which he gave the Bob Cat.

"I'll eat this candy ball and then I'll nibble your ears!" snarled the bad chap. He put the golf ball in his mouth, and, knowing no better, he bit down on it as hard as he could.

"I'll eat this candy ball!" snarled the bad chap.

"Zing! Zung!" howled the Bob Cat as he felt his teeth sink into the hard, sticky rubber golf ball. "Oh, Zowie—blub—glub!" And then he couldn't say any more, and more, he could not open his jaws. His teeth were caught fast in the golf ball.

"Ha! Ha!" laughed Uncle Wiggily as the Bob Cat tried to claw the ball out of his mouth but could not. "I guess you won't nibble my ears today." And the Bob Cat couldn't.

Then the bunny and Uncle Butter finished their game of golf, and Neddie and Beckie liked their jaw-breakers very much. And if the fountain pen doesn't give the piece of white paper a black mark and make it stay in after the movies, I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggily and the clothes line.

A Little Slice o' Life

A brisk little gentleman
With old-fashioned whiskers
And an antique necktie
And a suit of ancient vintage
Rushed up the steps of the library
And found an attendant.
"I want The Nomical Chewer," he said.
"What is the name of the book?"
Asked the polite lady at the counter.
"The Nomical Chewer," he said.
"My daughter had one of them,
But somebody borrowed it and
Forgot to bring it back, and now
She wants to consult it.
The name is The Nomical Chewer."
The clerk was very much puzzled.
"I am afraid we haven't it,"
Said she, "but I will inquire."
She was gone a long time, and
She consulted the librarian.
The librarian made a wild guess
And sent her back with Nomenclature.
The old man took one glance
At the title and said, happily:
"That's it. The Nomical Chewer,
I knew you must have it here.
Thank you, ever so much.

Guide to the Movies

How I can understand a movie that I have never seen:

When I see a bunch of fellows sitting around a fire while one of the group plays a banjo, I know that this is college.

When I see a man with his back toward a door I know that he is extracting a key and that no good is coming to the sister of the hero who is in the room.

When I see a man wearing a hat in the house I know that he is a detective.

When a man carries a book under his arm and lives in a garret I know he is an author.—Moonshine.

AIN'T LOVE GRAND?

In front of the city hall a taxi comes to a sudden stop. Fumbling with the lever, it seems a long time before the occupants extricate themselves from the cab. They comprise a quartet—bride and bridegroom, best man and maid of honor. Blushing and giggling like a little kid who has been suddenly caught in a mischievous act the bride endeavors to hide from the inquisitive glances of the pedestrians while her husband-to-be is dickering with the chauffeur. With a broad smile, the foursome rush into the corridor and inquire their way to the marriage license bureau. Up they are whirled to the —nth floor, and alighting from the elevator lift they make a stampede for the door. But the door is inexorable. Muttering all kinds of oaths under their breaths, that door to happiness remains unswerved. With a catch in her throat, the bride calls, "John, look!" And what does he see? "Closed for the day. Open tomorrow 10 a. m." Wearily they make their way to the lift, and soon they are in the same spot where they thought their happiness was to begin. Gee, but ain't love grand?—A. M.

POEMS That LIVE

VERSES WRITTEN AT KENMORE, SCOTLAND

Admiring Nature in her wildest grace,
These northern scenes with weary feet I trace;
O'er many a winding dale and painful steep,
Th' abodes of covey'd grouse and timid sheep,
My savage journey, curious, I pursue,
Till fam'd Breadalbane opens to my view,—
The meeting cliffs each deep-sunk glen divides,
The woods, wild scattered, clothe their ample sides;
The outstretching lake, imbosomed 'mong the hills,
The eye with wonder and amazement fills;
The Fay meandering sweet in infant pride,
The palace rising on his verdant side,
The lawns wood-fringed in Nature's native taste,
The hillocks dropt in Nature's careless haste,
The arches striding o'er the newborn stream,
The village glittering in the noontide beam.

Poetic ardours in my bosom swell,
Lone wand'ring by the hermit's mossy cell;
The sweeping theatre of hanging woods,
Th' incessant roar of headlong tumbling floods.
Here Poesy might wake her heaven-taught lyre,
And look through Nature with creative fire;
Here, to the wrongs of Fate half reconcil'd,
Misfortune's lighten'd steps might wander wild;
And Disappointment, in these lonely bounds,
Find balm to soothe her bitter rankling wounds;
Here heart-struck Grief might heavenward stretch her scan,
And injured Worth forget and pardon man.

WHO'S WHO

IN THE DAY'S NEWS

R. B. CREAGER

It is generally believed that R. B. Creager, Texas banker, will be appointed U. S. ambassador to Mexico in a few days. Creagor was known to be the choice of the late President Harding for the post. President Coolidge recently held a long conference with Creager and since this talk Washington understands that the new executive desires to make no change in the plan.

Creager, whose home is in Brownsville, Tex., was host to President Harding when the chief executive was president-elect. The Texan lived in Mexico for years and is therefore well acquainted with conditions, customs and manners. He is also in full accord with the president's views on the Mexican situation and in close touch with the administration. Creager is married and has an interesting family. He never has taken a prominent part in national politics although he has been interested in Republican circles for many years.

A negro woman was telling a friend that she had been to a wedding, according to Everybody's. She described the bride's white satin gown, the veil, the slippers, the flowers and everything.

"And what did the bridegroom wear?" asked the friend.

"Well, do you know that good for nothing nigger never showed up at all," was the astonishing reply.

Mars will be nearer to the earth next August 22 than it has been in 120 years, and the distance then will be about 35,000,000 miles.

The Glendale Music Company feels obligated today, as it has grown large and vigorous with Glendale and today is able to do big things—buy in large quantities; receive special prices through its large purchasing power for three stores—and today feels more capable than ever before in filling the demand of the music loving public of Glendale and San Fernando Valley in enabling them to purchase standard merchandise at the lowest possible prices. Nowhere in the Southland can you duplicate our prices and terms. Our tremendous success is due to buying in large carload lots—receiving merchandise at the lowest price possible and being satisfied with a fair profit, passing the saving along to you. Now comes the time when we want to show you our appreciation, as we realize it is YOU, the people of Glendale and the San Fernando Valley, who are largely responsible for our wonderful growth and success and it is for YOUR BENEFIT that this sale is being held.

We are, at this time, building a new addition to our store, also rearranging the interior, this giving us increased space and capacity in which to serve our hundreds of customers. During the confusion, dust and abuse that our instruments are subject to while these alterations are being made, we take this opportunity to avoid the depreciation they might suffer and jointly celebrate our anniversary and expansion by offering the entire stock of the Glendale Music Company, which embraces our three stores, in the selling of standard World Famous Pianos, Grands, Players, Reproducing Player Pianos, Phonographs, Band and String Instruments and all other musical merchandise, with a few unavoidable exceptions.

Diet and Health

By Lulu Hunt Peters, M.D.

Author of "Diet and Health, with Key to the Calories"

TABLE OF FEEDING FROM 15TH TO 18TH MONTHS
(Calories 900 to 1,200 per Day)

Last week, I gave this table of feeding from the fifteenth to the eighteenth month. I had included in that article the table for the eighteenth to thirty-sixth month, but it could not be condensed to fit our space, and by the time I knew it, it was too late to run the second table on Saturday so you could have them together.

Realizing that it may be impossible for you to get last Friday's paper, and since we haven't these tables in a form to mail you, I am going to run the fifteenth and eighteenth months table again today, and tomorrow the table for the eighteenth to thirty-sixth months. Now be sure to save this table, mothers, because tomorrow's table will depend upon this one:

Important! If your babies have not been having solid foods up to the fifteenth month, mothers, begin as I have directed for the sixth month babies. You can increase the foods a little faster, but be cautious.

Baby may and probably will refuse the solid foods. If so, withhold the milk and starve him to it. It won't hurt him. A 12- or even a 24-hour fast (with plenty of water) will usually convince them you mean business.

At the 15th month the baby who has been fed according to the directions I have been giving you here from week to week recently, can begin three meals a day.

Breakfast, 7:30 A. M.—Milk 8 oz. No sugar. Dry crisp bread and butter, ½ slice or so; increase gradually.

Egg yolks 2 or 3 times a week or oftener. Begin to add the white of the eggs—on the days meat is not given at the noon meal—with one teaspoonful and increase gradually.

Cereal, ½ cup or more with some of the 8-oz. allowance of milk, no sugar.

9:00 A. M.—Juice of an orange or of ½ grapefruit and ½ to 1 glass of water.

Dinner, 11:30 to 12:00—Meat or vegetable broths with rice or bread (24 hours old) in it, 2 or 3 times a week. Baby may now have thickened milk ("cream") soups also. Crisp bread and butter, ½ slice or so. Scraped beef, 1 to 2 level tablespoons—or Cottage cheese, 2 to 3 level tablespoons—or nut butter, ½ to 1 level tablespoons thinned with milk or water—2 or 3 times a week. Bone to gnaw on 2 or 3 times a week. Strained vegetables, 3 to 4 tablespoons—potato and one other (any vegetables you have) with leafy vegetables 3 or 4 times each week. Give spaghetti, macaroni or rice occasionally instead of potato. Raw fruit, scraped or cooked fruit (with very little sugar), 2 to 4 level tablespoons. Milk, 4 to 8 oz. to drink. (This can be omitted if the same amount is taken in soup.)

3:30 P. M.—Milk, 5 to 6 oz.

Supper, 5:30 to 6 P. M.—Milk, 8 oz. Dry, crisp bread and butter. Cooked cereal ½ cupful, with some of the milk in it. Fruit sauce or raw fruit, scraped, 2 to 4 tablespoons.

When the first molars, the chewing teeth, are in (12 to 16 months) you can chop the vegetables and meat instead of straining or scraping them, Mothers. Make baby chew.

Tomorrow — Table of Feeding From the 18th to 36th Months

My Dear Followers: When sending for material which we offer you, please remember to enclose a stamped envelope bearing your full name and address. The pamphlet on reducing and gaining is the only one for which you must enclose 4 cents in stamps extra. Address your letters to me in care of this paper. Make them as brief as possible, not over 250 words, and type or write them legibly with ink. Please sign your name as evidence of good faith—we will not use it in any way. Remember, it is impossible for me to diagnose for you or to answer you personally. I appreciate very much the beautiful letters you send me and regret it is impossible to give you individual advice. The questions you ask will be answered in the columns as soon as possible, if they are of general interest. Don't forget the s. a. s. e. if you expect me to send you the information I have offered.

Daily Fashion Hint

Prepared Especially for The Glendale Evening News

FASHION'S FAVORITE

The coat-frock is one of the leading modes for Autumn and Winter. Here is an unusually attractive type suited to development in all of the fabrics that Fashion approves. It is embellished with fancy silk braid and fastens in surplice effect. The sash is made of heavy moire ribbon, or grosgrain ribbon may be used instead. Note the lines of the notched collar and the smart long sleeves that Paris adores so enthusiastically. Medium size requires 3¾ yards 54-inch material.

Pictorial Review Dress No. 1510. Sizes, 34 to 48 inches bust. Price 35 cents.

In cases of obscure fever, examination of the urine will often reveal pus which may have its origin in the kidneys.

SMART AND USEFUL MODEL

A smart little imported model of the always-useful type is this dress in dark-blue Poiret twill. The blouse has an oval-shaped neck, stitched with a two-piece trimming-band, and fastens at one side of the front. The stitched bands are repeated on the kimono sleeves and at the lower edge of the blouse. The embroidered motif is in blue and gold. The skirt is draped at one side, and may be made with or without a seam at the center back. Medium size requires 4 yards 54-inch material.

Pictorial Review Blouse No. 1672. Sizes, 34 to 44 inches bust. Price 30 cents. Skirt No. 1685. Sizes, 24 to 34 inches waist. Price, 30 cents. Motif No. 12820. Transfer, blue or yellow, 25 cents.

Beauty Chats

By Edna Kent Forbes

A MOUTH EPERCISE

I found a novel and very sensible beauty shop not long ago. The woman in charge, whose white hair showed her to be nearly 50, but whose face was as freshly pink and unwrinkled as a young girl's, told me that she used very little massage, that most of her face treatments consisted in facial exercises.

"I prevent wrinkles that way," she explained, adding that massage as well as exercise was employed when wrinkles were already deeply engraved.

"The worst wrinkles are always around the mouth, and these are the earliest ones to appear," she said. "The hair can be dressed low to cover wrinkles across the forehead. Wrinkles around the eyes give the face character and expression for years before they give it age. But wrinkles around the mouth and sagging cheeks are ugly from the day they appear.

"I have my clients practice blowing exercises. First, fill one cheek with air, expel it through the side of the mouth. Repeat with the other cheek (you'll look odd while you're doing it, but never mind). Then fill both cheeks and blow through the centre of the lips, keeping the lips closed to create resistance. Do this for about five minutes a day. You can see how this lifts those muscles that droop, and how it fills out the lines which will some day be deep wrinkles!"

I've often advised a similar treatment for mouth wrinkles, and also the neck stretching exercise she gives for double chins. To strengthen the eyes and to help prevent crowfeet, she advises moving the eyelids, then looking upwards as high as possible.

Constant Reader—When children are growing there is no rule for determining what is or what is not normal weight. The only thing that counts is the condition of health. If that is good, weight is apt to be normal for that particular period.

A Mother—I hardly think that cutting the baby's hair has destroyed its tendency to curl. She has probably outgrown curls. But you can train the hair to go just as it did before, if you dampen it and brush the strands around your fingers forming them into ringlets. It would be an exceptional case if this method did not work.

Tomorrow—Medical Beauty Hints

All inquiries addressed to Miss Forbes, in care of the "Beauty Chats" department will be answered in these columns in their turn. This requires considerable time, however, owing to the great number received. So, if a personal or quicker reply is desired, a stamped envelope must be enclosed with the question.—The Editor.

"What shall I do with left over egg-yolks?" is a question I am asked frequently. Here are some excellent ways of using them:

Onion Soup: Peel and slice 12 medium-sized onions, then fry them in a little butter till they are light brown in color. Now put them into a soup pot with one pint of hot, sweet milk and one quart of boiling water; add two slices of bacon which have been crisply fried, one-half teaspoon of sugar, and salt and pepper to season. Bring to the boiling point and let simmer for one hour, then strain through a sieve, add the beaten yolks of three eggs, one tablespoon of butter and one cup of cream. Let come to the boiling point again and serve.

Cold Cakes: Cream together one tablespoon of butter and one-half cup of sugar; add the yolks of four eggs (beaten till very thick) and stir vigorously. Now put one-eighth teaspoon of baking soda in a cup and add to it a very little hot water (just enough to dissolve it); add this dissolved soda to one-fourth cup of sour cream, then turn the mixture into the bowl with the butter-sugar-and-egg mixture. Quickly add a scant three-quarters of a cup of bread flour, a pinch of salt and one-fourth teaspoon of grated nutmeg. Beat well and bake in pans that will make very small cup-cakes, slipping the pans into hot oven for about 20 minutes. Frost while hot with an ordinary uncooked icing.

Scrambled Egg-Yolks: Put three egg-yolks into a bowl and add one whole egg to them (this one egg-white is necessary to make a good omelet). Beat the eggs lightly, add to them one-half cup of cold sweet milk, a pinch of salt and two heaping tablespoons of crisply-fried bacon which has been broken into tiny bits, turn this mixture into a hot frying pan containing one tablespoon of sizzling butter, and cook lightly, holding the pan a little above the intense heat, and scraping the bottom of the pan as soon as the mixture clings to it. When cooked, serve on triangles of hot buttered toast.

All inquiries addressed to Miss Kirkman in care of the "Efficient Housekeeping" department will be answered in these columns in their turn. This requires considerable time, however, owing to the great number received. So, if a personal or quicker reply is desired, a stamped and self-addressed envelope must be enclosed with the question. Be sure to use your full name, street number, and the name of your city and state.—The Editor.

The continued exodus from the south of the colored population, although a matter of concern in industrial centers, is not without a bit of humor now and then, remarks Everybody's.

At the terminal station in Macon, Ga., a party of adventurers was entraining recently for points north, and one of the party bidding good-bye to another of his color said: "Well, Sam, when you comin' to Detroit?"

"I belongs to de 'B' class," replied Sam.

"How's dat? What you mean by de 'B' class, nigger?"

"What I means," said Sam, "is dat I be here when you's gwine away an' I be's here when you comes back."

Heart and Home Problems

By MRS. ELIZABETH THOMPSON

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl of eighteen and go with a boy two years my senior. This boy and I have very good times together. He is a boy full of life and decent, and I like him very much. I have not gone with him so very long. Is there a possibility of love at first sight? Am I too young as yet to know the man I love?

I have been with a great many boys, but none have stirred up a feeling in my heart like this boy has. I feel sure I love him.

He talks of the sea and says he would be in the marines now if it were not for his mother. She does not want him to go. He also says he wouldn't think of going if the time came to get married and settle down. If the time came that we felt we loved each other enough to marry, would I be safe in marrying him? Would he then want to settle down to a steady job? Of course he is working now, but still he says the longing for the sea shuts out all other thoughts. I have not been contemplating marriage yet, but the time may come when I will.

He has told me he loved me, but of course that could be as friends. BLUE EYES.

You may find that your love for the young man was a case of love at first sight. But the only way to test the depth of your affection is with time. If you care more and more for him as the months pass, you will know that yours is not a case of infatuation. Although you are young, you are not too young to be deeply in love.

The boy's yearning for the sea may be so strong that some time he will turn to the life which makes such an appeal to him at present. More often, however, the yearnings of youth grow less and less strong as time goes on and new interests come. You can judge the prospects of your friend's future by the way in which he works. If he refuses to do the best he can in the position he now holds, you have reason to think he is a dreamer and lacks application. Observe conditions and draw your own conclusions. Even the most promising of marriages because the temperaments of the men and women are adaptable to the conditions of marriage. Love, loyalty, sympathy, steadfastness and unselfishness are necessary where great happiness is found. Have you reason to think that the marriage you consider would be so blessed?

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a young man twenty years old and I go with a girl two years my junior. She chums with a girl the same age as herself. This girl friend of hers gets her to go with her in an auto belonging to two young fellows. They make love to the girls although they do not love them.

My girl friend does not let me know she loves me, but I am sure she does as she told another girl that she was madly in love with me, but she didn't want me to know it. Do you think she loves me?

I love her dearly and I would do anything for her. What should I do to keep her from going with those young men, as that sort of thing will come to no good?

WONDERING.

It never pays to put too much faith in what you hear indirectly. It may be that the girl loves you, but her conduct would hardly indicate that her love was very deep. You have every reason to object to her night rides and spooning with the other young man and unless she cares enough for you to give up that sort of thing I would advise you to find another girl.

With the Women of Today

By MRS. LILIAN CAMPBELL

On the death of her father, president of the Germantown State Bank, South Germantown, Wis., Mrs. Emma Duerrwaechter was made president of the institution. She had been notary public for the bank ever since its organization in 1910 and had, as she says, "been practically raised in the mercantile world." She is by no means lacking in the domestic virtues, however, and can plan her housework and prepare the meals as well as manage the bank.

"Women are in business to stay," Mrs. Duerrwaechter says, "and they usually give as great, if not greater, satisfaction than men, especially in detail work. Women are making their way in the banking field with wonderful rapidity and they have proven themselves well fitted for the work. Wisconsin has a large number of women working in banks. There are over one hundred assistant cashiers, over thirty directors, several cashiers and vice-presidents and two presidents.

Mrs. Emma Duerrwachter

"The turnover is less among women than men for the latter are forever seeking to improve their positions, while women, if they find congenial work, will stay until they marry. I believe fewer unhappy marriages will result from this condition as a woman does not feel the need of marrying for a home."

ODD BITS ABOUT WOMEN

Mrs. Frank M. Jones, active president of a large lumber company in Tacoma, Wash., has just passed her seventy-eighth birthday.

A failure on the stage, Miss Mary E. Jones of Norwich, Conn., is winning huge success in the cake-baking business.

At the age of fifty-three, Miss Marie Van Vorst, noted novelist, has just taken up an artistic career. She ppursues her artistic studies during the daylight hours and dictates her novels to a stenographer at night.

Mrs. Sarah Turner of Washington, D. C., has taken up a very unusual occupation for women, that of practical locksmith. In a few years she has built up a successful business as a key maker and expert in locks.

SUFFRAGE PARADE TO HOME OF MUSSOLINI

After the recent Congress of the International Alliance for Woman Suffrage in Rome, the delegates, led by the Alliance flag, marched to Premier Mussolini's home, to announce to him the results of their meeting. Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt of America, first honorary president, walked beside the new president, Mrs. Corbett Ashby of England.

A vacation always looks better while you are waiting for it than it does when you are on it. Because, when you are on it you can't help counting the days that will elapse before it is over. A vacation begins getting over just as soon as you start on it.

Papyrus comes all the way over from England to race for a mere $100,000. Papyrus should be in the prize fighting business and get $500,000.

MIDGETS DEFEAT SOUTH PASADENA

Glendale High Lightweights Score 18 to Visitors' 0 On Gridiron

By NEAL E. SOOY
Written for The Evening News

"Sock, Pam, Zowie, Woof, Ow!"

Such were the cries of the desperately battling Glendale Union High school midget football players as they ferociously fought South Pasadena squad on Moose field yesterday afternoon. The final score of 18-0 could be seen as the smoke slowly cleared away, with Glendale sitting in its usual place, on top.

By winning this game, the middleweights are practically assured of securing the league championship, as the South Pasadena eleven is supposed to be the strongest in the circuit. The visitors had a good offensive, but their defensive crumpled up like paper before the onslaughts of the locals. In fact, the invaders' backfield was the only thing that saved them from a worse defeat. Perkins and Mullins were exceedingly provoking to the Red and Black warriors, and made several long gains for the Cubs.

Stars of Game

LaFranchi and McAllister were the outstanding backfield men, the former crossing the line for two scores, while McAllister made one of the prettiest catches of a pass that has been seen in a long time. And to top that off, he scored on it. Shuler failed to add the extra points. Stillwell at end, proved an annoyance to the baby Tigers with his flashy tackling. Muff slammed through the line many a time to down an opposing back.

Glendale steadily made yards in the first quarter and got the ball on the enemy's twenty-yard line. Shuler tried a place kick, but failed to put enough force behind it. South Pas started a series of line bucks on her own 5-yard line, but was forced to punt.

Glendale again tried a place kick in the second, but lacked the strength. Glendale and South Pas exchanged the ball a few times before the half ended.

Shuler started the ball rolling in the third when he intercepted a pass and ran 50 yards. He was downed on the Tigers' 1-yard line. Frenchy squirmed his way over. Shuler failed to convert. Glendale and South Pas exchanged a few punts until one of the visitors' punts was blocked. Glendale got the ball and it looked like a touchdown, with two downs to go 1 foot. The locals fumbled, however, and lost the ball.

South Pasadena opened the fourth quarter by punting out of danger, but they were fooled when LaFranchi caught the ball and tore off thirty yards for another marker, aided by Stillwell's pretty interference. Shuler again failed to convert. South Pas resorted to the aerial attack but kept losing the ball on intercepted passes. The locals finally scored again when Frenchy passed to McAllister, who leaped in the air and plucked it down. He then plowed 5 yards for a score. The game ended after the try for the point had been unsuccessful. Final score: Glendale—18; South Pasadena—0.

Substitutes — Glendale, Roberts, Detwiler, C. Thompson, Worley.

Wilson Ave. School Takes Soccer Game

The second game of the interschool soccer schedule was played off Thursday at Wilson school between the junior teams of the two intermediate schools, resulting in a score of 2 to 1, for Wilson avenue. Howard Heck, center forward for Wilson, made the winning goal.

The line-up was as follows:

THREE TALLY ON SINGLE BASE HIT

Sixteen Men Make History by Scoring on Freak Baseball Play

By NORMAN E. BROWN

Few baseball happenings furnish a bigger thrill than that of a fleet-footed gent legging it home from first base on a single. The event is much rarer than the spectacular steal of home, the triple steal or the race for home against a pitcher's heave in a squeeze play.

But the spectacle of three runners scoring ahead of that winged-footed gent on a one-base hit is even more rare—and by the same token (as Battling Nelson would say), bigger stuff.

Cleveland fans had a chance to see that last trick turned a while ago when Rube Lutzke, young third sacker, clipped out a base hit against the Athletics.

The fans who saw that little exhibition of speedy hoofing and the resulting three runs are now in a class with just fifteen other groups of fans. For the stunt has been pulled just sixteen times in the history of the National and American leagues.

According to the dope at hand—and watch the busy little statisticians try to call me—ten other players in the American league can shake hands with Lutzke. And just five bozoes in the old circuit got away with it.

The ten other American leaguers are Hub Northern, Nap Lajoie, Steve Yerkes, Frank Baker, Heinie Wagner, Oscar Vitt, Les Nunamaker, Duffy Lewis, Ray Demmitt and Buck Weaver.

The five old leaguers are Kitty Bransfield, Jack Miller, Sherry Magee, Gavvy Cravath and Emil Meusel.

In other words, these sixteen gentry are in a class just as select in their circle as are the no-hit boys in the pitching world.

It's an interesting fact that Nap Lajoie, one of the old timers to shove three home with a single, did it at the expense of an old war-horse who is still going strong—Jack Quinn, who is still with the Yankees.

Hub Northern, the first American leaguer to turn the trick, picked the one and only Walter Johnson for his victim back in 1910. Northern was with the Browns.

First Central League League Game Today

Glendale Union High school's heavyweight football team meets South Pasadena in the first Central League battle today on the enemy's grounds. The locals have one of the best teams they have had in several years, and they fully expect to clean up the opposing eleven. South Pasadena has a light and fast team, and uses quite a number of trick plays, but this doesn't scare the Red and Black warriors. They have a perfect system of defense and will work it for all that it is worth.

The probable line-up will be: Horii and Lavalle, ends; Phillips and Hartman, tackles; Morrison and Brucker, guards; Zaun, center; D. Elliott, quarter; West and Ryan, halves; H. Elliott, full.

Cyril Walton and Harry Fish, star half and tackle respectively, who were forced out of the game on account of injuries, will be on hand for today's fracas. Although they will not be able to play very much as yet, the team has been greatly strengthened by their return to the fold.

Stanford's Football Team Invades L. A.

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Cal., Oct. 19.—Twenty-seven Stanford football men left with Coach Andy Kerr, Trainer Denny, and Football Manager Ayres for Los Angeles at 9:30 last night to meet the Occidental college eleven in Los Angeles Saturday afternoon.

Paul Murray and Dick Lawson, halfbacks, who were expected to be in Kerr's lineup, will be left at home on account of injuries incurred in practice. The following men are in the party with Kerr: Ends, J. Lawson, Thomas, Dolle, Harris, Middleton, Harris, McDermott; Tackles, Johnston, Shipkey, Loomis, Neill; guards, Faville, Cravens, Ludeke, Armour; centers, Baker and Hunt; quarterbacks, Captain Campbell and Mitchell; half backs, Cleaveland, Cuddeback, Woodward, Dennis, Wheat, Dwight, Hey; fullbacks, Nevers and Solomon.

Grayson Turns Down $50,000 Race Offer

LAUREL, Md., Oct. 19.—Officials of the Maryland state fair, which controls the Laurel park, have received a communication from Admiral Cary Grayson refusing to run his sensational colt My Own in a proposed $50,000 match race here next Thursday, it has been learned. No reason was given for the refusal.

Earlier in the week, Laurel officials had proposed a match between My Own and the winner of the Zev-Papyrus race. While Basil Jarvis, trainer of the English thoroughbred, had announced he would not run Papyrus, Sam Hildreth had accepted in behalf of Zev's owner, Harry F. Sinclair, and it had been expected a match would be run should he win on Saturday.

TROJAN TEAM IN GRID LIMELIGHT

Football Fans Watch Result Of Battle Scheduled With Washington

By "DOC" McGILLIS
Of The Evening News Staff

Although a number of interesting gridiron struggles will take place on the coast tomorrow, the one which holds the bright spot in the limelight will be the University of Washington-University of Southern California battle in Seattle. Following this game the sport mentors of both California and Stanford will have obtained more of a definite "line" on the Trojans than at any time this season.

With interest as keen as it has been in a number of years at the northwestern institution Saturday's mixup is expected to attract the largest crowd of the season. Every man, woman and child in the state of Washington who ever saw a football game is pulling for a victory over the Cardinal and Gold eleven from the Southland. The rivalry has become keener, due to the fact that Enoch Bagshaw and Elmer Henderson, the opposing coaches, have been gridiron foes over a period of a number of years. Prior to 1919 Henderson coached the Broadway High school team in Seattle, during which time Bagshaw handled the tanbark affairs on the Everett eleven. Henderson didn't lose a game in four years with his high school squad, and Bagshaw is determined to even the score now.

Two Stars Injured

Reports from Seattle state that the Trojan team is in fine shape with the exception of Gordon Campbell and Otto Anderson, the former being slightly laid up with a twisted hip and the latter with a sprained ankle. Should these backfield stars be kept out of Saturday's contest U. S. C.'s chances of victory will not be so good, especially in the case of Campbell. The diminutive Trojan fullback showed up last week in the Nevada game in almost perfect form. He is at least half of the U. S. C. backfield strength.

In the 1923 Washington aggregation Coach Bagshaw has a squad of the huskiest players assembled in the west in recent years. With a line averaging more than 190 pounds to the man and a fast and shifty backfield, the Huskies lay claim to the most formidable array of talent in their recent history. A number of the players were members of the famous Everett High school eleven which walked all over the championship Long Beach Jackrabbits several years ago.

All in all, the Trojans will walk on the field tomorrow afternoon at least 3 to 2 favorites over their highly touted northern rivals.

gium, but not quite as bad as we had feared.

"We have a very good hotel, at not an excessive rate. They serve bounteous quantities of food, and its quality is excellent. Their reputation for good milk, cream, butter and chesse is not overdrawn. They serve cheese at breakfast!

See Queen's Palace

"Our drive over the city today revealed some most interesting sights. The finest was that of the 'House in the Woods,' one of the queen's palaces, which she occupies during two months of the year, April and May. It is not pretentious on the outside, but within it is filled with wonderful treasures. Many of the furnishings are gifts from kings and countries; for instance, a Chinese room and a Japanese room, furnished complete by those nations, the wood being of the rarest, the furniture upholstered with hand-embroidered silk, and even the entire walls covered with silk, embossed in beautiful designs by hand.

"In the Japanese room this wall covering is in designs of birds, and the real feathers were inserted, so colored and gilded that you couldn't imagine it to be so unless you examined it closely.

"In other rooms are Delft, Satsuma and Cloissonne vases, and two immense urns of alabaster, ivory pieces in filigree carving, inlaid tables with mother-of-pearl, and chairs inlaid with tortoise shell and gold; all so tasteful and harmonious. In one room all the woodwork is in rosewood, in another it is all teakwood.

Beautiful Ballroom

"But the climax of the building is the octagonal baliroom, 200 or 300 years old, with a beautiful lofty dome, simply covered with paintings from top to bottom, by nine pupils of Rubens, chief among whom was Jordaens. It took these men four years to complete them. They represent scenes in early Dutch history and mythology. Many of the characters are life-sized. A recent picture is of the reigning royal family in ancient costume.

"The first peace conference, in 1899, presided over by Roosevelt, to settle the Russo-Japanese war, was held in this room. I suppose Teddy used his spare time there, looking up ancestors. Our guide was his guide at that time, and remarked on his strenuosity in seeing things. This room is simply a show-room now. No ball has been given in it for 200 years.

Care Little for Queen

"From remarks by some of the Dutch whom we have met, we judge that Wilhelmina has not the loyalty and devotion of her subjects that is enjoyed by most of the reigning monarchs of Europe today. They didn't think much of her marriage, and they feel that she is not in the closest touch with them, although they gave her a big turnout at the time of the twenty-fifth anniversary of her reign a week ago.

"The queen has four palaces; pretty 'strong' for a little country of 6,000,000, don't you think? The 'Huis in the Bosch' should be good enough for any monarch.

"We drove by the main palace, where the queen resides, went out to the seashore and had a full day. I must not forget to speak of some paintings by De Witt of mythological subjects, and imitation of sculpture, and so perfect that we had to put our hands on the flat surface to be convinced that they were not sculpture.

Rest in Switzerland

"AMSTERDAM, Holland, Sept. 17.—We have decided to change our itinerary again. We have been going pretty strenuously, as you will admit, and the wife needs rest; so, instead of going directly into Germany from here, as we had intended, we will hasten down into Switzerland, hoping to be there before the season is too late, and find some quiet, healthful place, where we will rest for a couple of weeks, after which we will work back into Germany and up to Berlin, then south again, via Vienna and Inasbruck, into Italy. We figure that this arrangement should land us in Berlin about October 28 and Venice about November 11.

"Mail which has been sent to us at Berlin will have to await our coming, and any which you desire to send to us after this letter reaches you, can still be sent to us at Berlin, in care of the American Express company. Allow about eighteen days for it to reach us.

Avoid Ruhr Valley

"By our present plan we will avoid the 'occupied territory,' unless we decide to go to Cologne on our way to Berlin. This being our farthest point north, we will start south tomorrow morning, going via The Hague, Antwerp, Brussels and Namur to Luxemburg, then to Strasburg, in Alsace-Lorraine, thence to Basel, Switzerland.

"In view of the change which we decided on at The Hague, we hestiated about coming up here, but as it is an old, large city, so historically connected with our country, our largest city having originally been called New Amsterdam, we decided that we would always regret it if we didn't come, especially as the distance is only thirty-five or forty miles. There was also another very unique place, close by, which we had long wanted to see, so here we came and have 'did' it. I will have to tell you about it in the next letter."

A description of Amsterdam will be given in Mr. Kirk's next letter.

Dr. Harrower Speaks Before Rotary Club

difficult to keep it we have to charge four per cent or German people would take it instead of our marks."

"Aha," said the doctor. "That is a rotten state of affairs," and, after much argument, he got American currency at a 2 per cent discount. He used this money, according to his remarks, in alleviating suffering among his friends.

Stole Watch Dog

Among other things he replaced a watch dog which had been stolen from Dr. Konradi, for thieves in Germany are so numerous you cannot leave a motor car unattended, and they had even stolen the doctor's former watch dog, perhaps preparing to raid the food cellars and coal bins of the hospital.

"German people have invested what money they have in food," said Dr. Harrower. "Their money can be worthless—and it isn't worth as much today as a mark on a piece of paper—but their food is always worth something."

A letter received from Berlin this week had 6,000,000 marks in postage thereon, two dozen 250,000-mark stamps, to carry it from Cologne to Glendale, according to the speaker, who added that during his visit to the defeated empire Dr. Heinrich Straus, head of the Jewish hospital in Berlin, as well as everybody else, admitted that they got a "bum steer" when they listened to the war lords in 1914, and that they have another "bum steer" in allowing the business men to force the German workers to accept the worthless paper mark for pay when such men as Stinnes and Cuno are investing their industrial earnings in England, Switzerland, America and South America.

Humor in Crisis

More or less humor was mixed into the doctor's remarks, particularly when he told of the devious methods of high finance practiced, as well as the working people's amusement in replacing their clothes.

"One little incident to show conditions," added the doctor. "A conductor on a Berlin street car dropped a fifty-mark piece. Asked why he did not pick it up, his reply was: 'Last time I stooped for fifty marks I ripped off a button. It cost fifty marks to replace it.'"

At the conclusion of his remarks Dr. Harrower was given much applause by the Rotarians and a word of thanks by the president of the club.

Civil Service Chief Must O. K. Pay Raises

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 19.—Upholding the right of the state civil service commission to regulate salaries of employes in state departments, Attorney - General Webb has handed down a decision at the instance of Will H. Marsh, superintendent of the state motor vehicle department, stating that pay increases can be given only with the sanction of David J. Reese, president of the civil service board. Marsh had sought to secure salary raises for employes in his department with the approval of the board of control and was blocked by Reese.

Denies Existence of U. S.-Salvador Treaty

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—Secretary of State Hughes has denied officially published reports that a secret treaty existed between the United States and Salvador in connection with the $6,000,000 loan to that country.

In a formal statement, Hughes declared that he merely had consented to act as arbiter between Salvador and American banking interests making the loan.

Grand Jury to Probe Graft Allegations

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 19.—A county grand jury investigation of charges of alleged graft in the transportation of prisoners from Los Angeles to San Quentin and Folsom penitentiaries by Los Angeles deputy sheriffs will be started soon, as the result of a secret investigation by the district attorney's office and county auditor's office extending over several months past, it was officially announced.
